ADVERTISEMENTS

PAGE 228

On the pages that follow, a year has been captured in pictures and words. As you leaf through the book, we hope you will realize that at Birmingham we are . . .

COMING TOGETHER AS ONE

The High School Experience. We come from all walks of life, many different schools, and varied backgrounds, and are all combined in the melting pot at Birmingham. We spend three years together, working, learning, sharing, growing. Together we emerge. At Birmingham we are coming together as one.

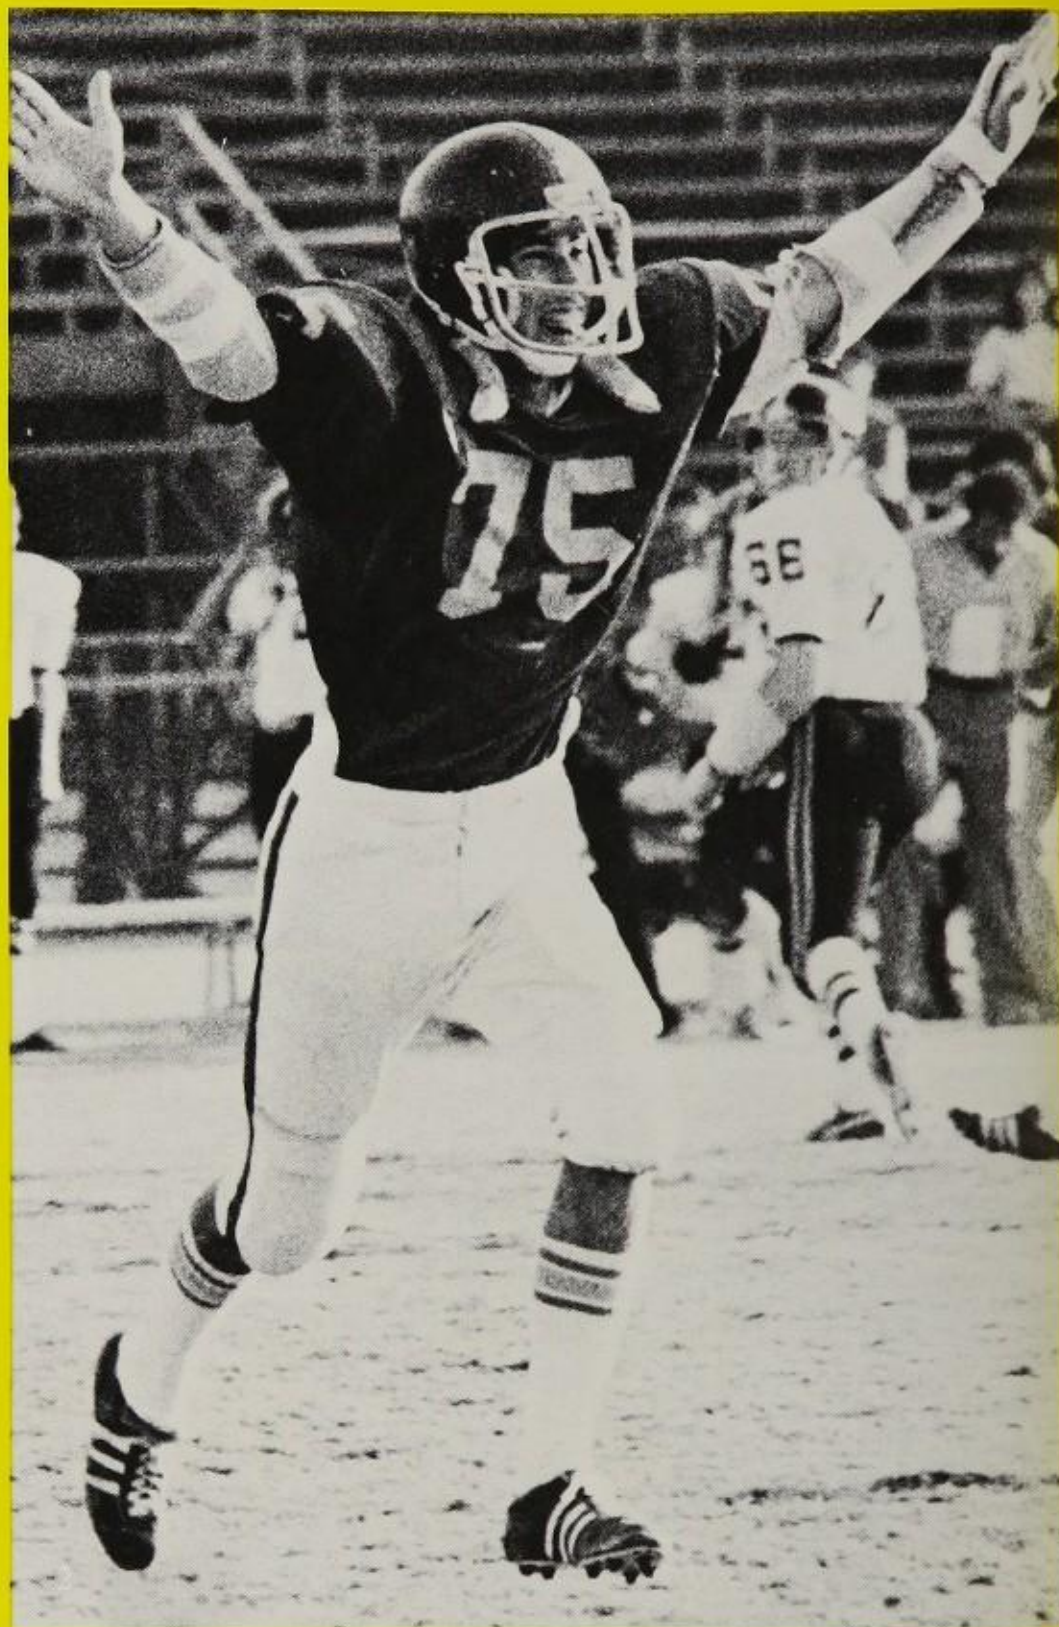

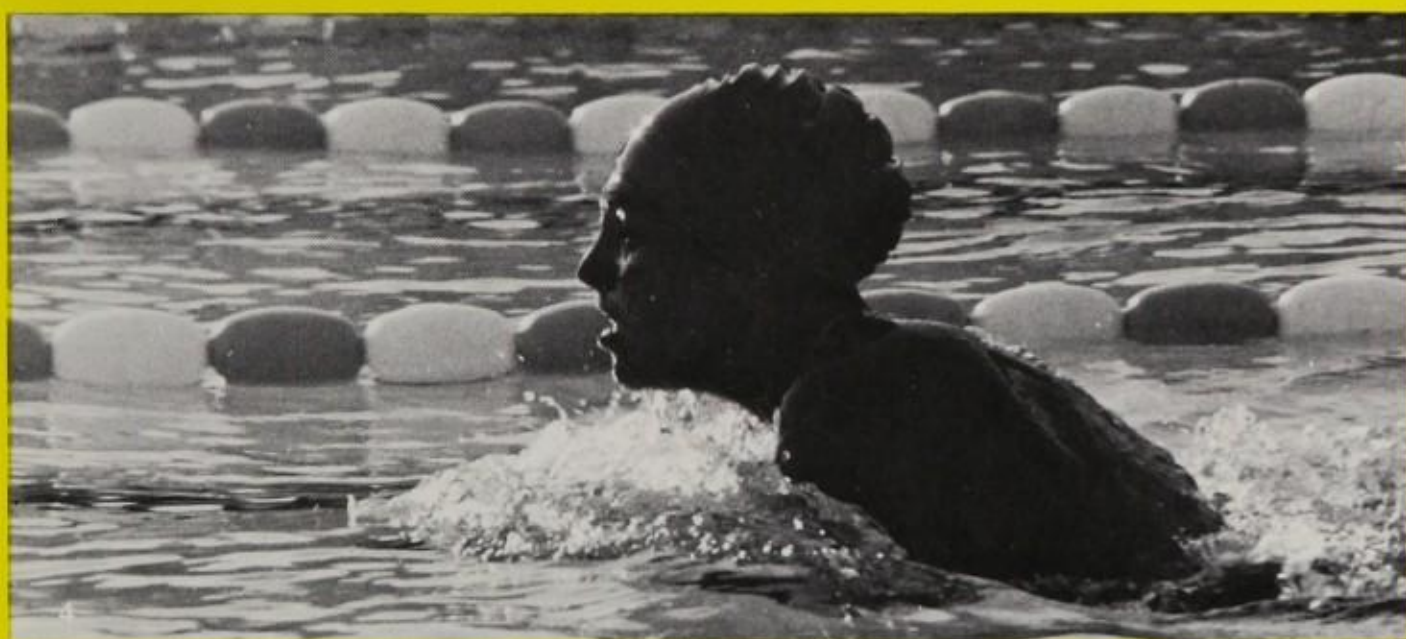

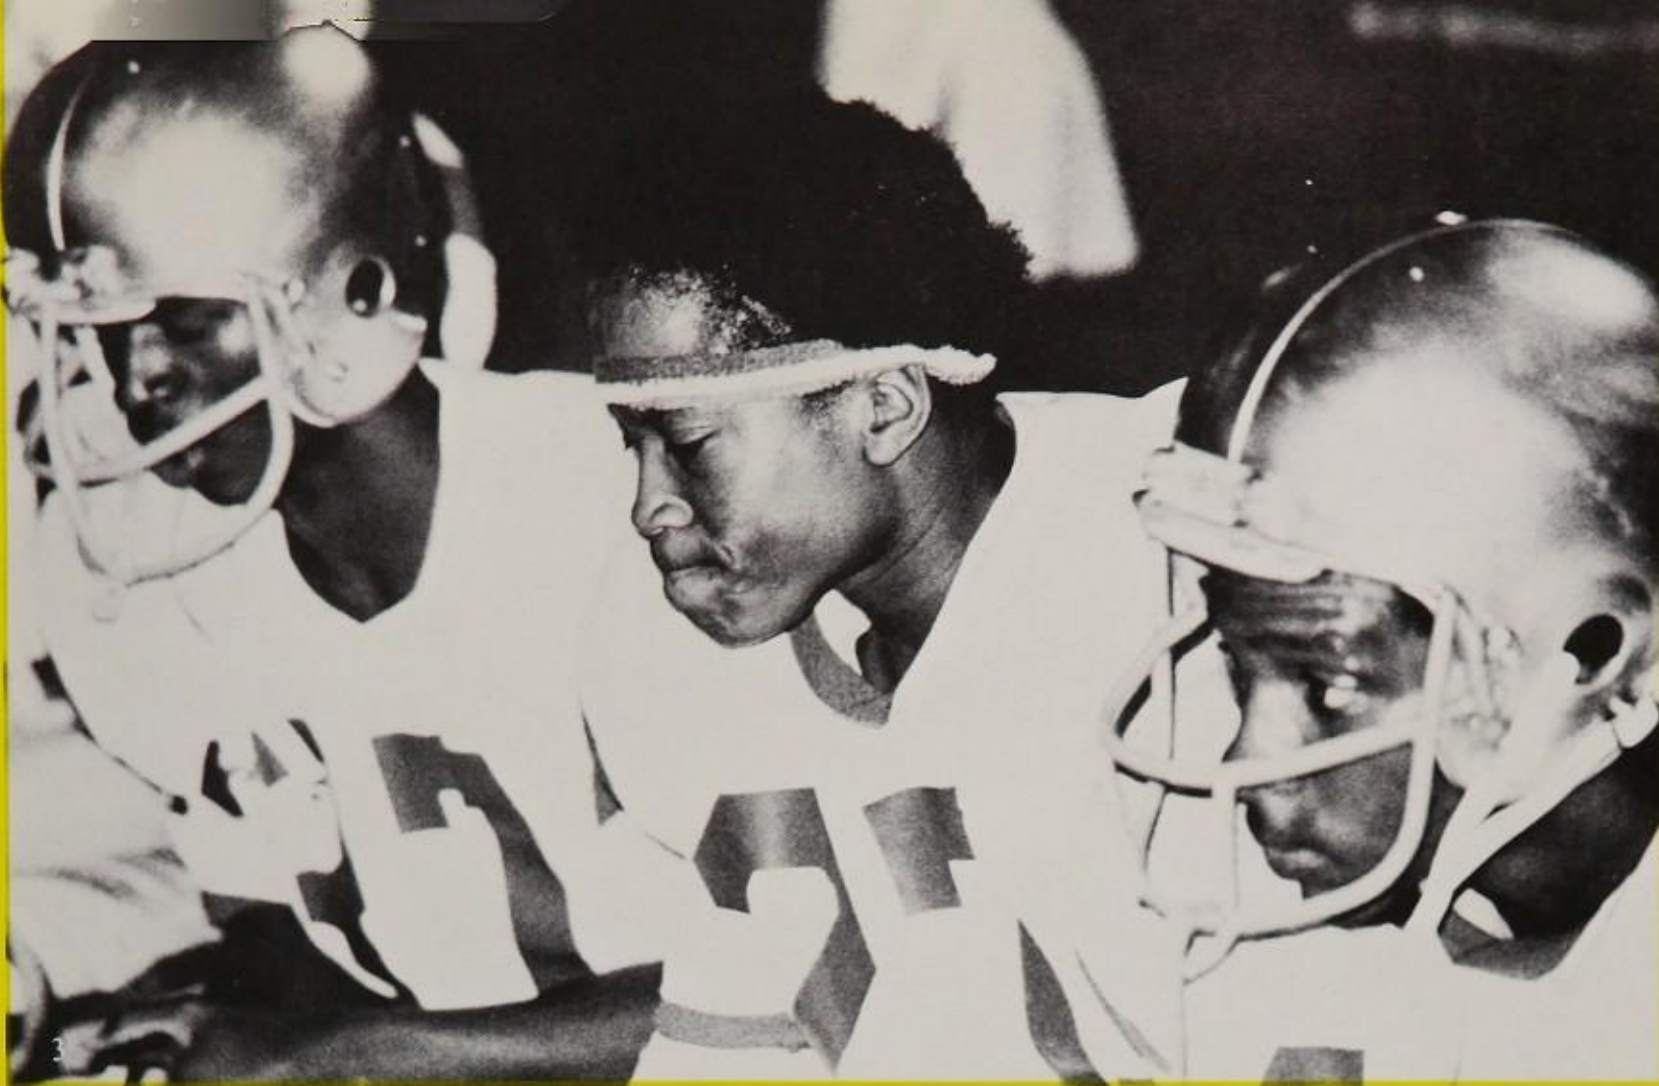

1. Michelle Rosove looks on as Randy Green spots Ann Levinton on a flip in the quad.
2. Richard Dunn and Vic Abbot concentrate deeply as they prepare to enter the game against San Pedro.
3. Marian Koltai does her Groucho look-alike act as she heads for class during club initiations.
4. Anthony Manison finds a spot to eat his M&M's in peace.
5. Kevin Robinson, our resident bongo player, does his thing during activity period as Alan Hosea and Devon Clayton look on.

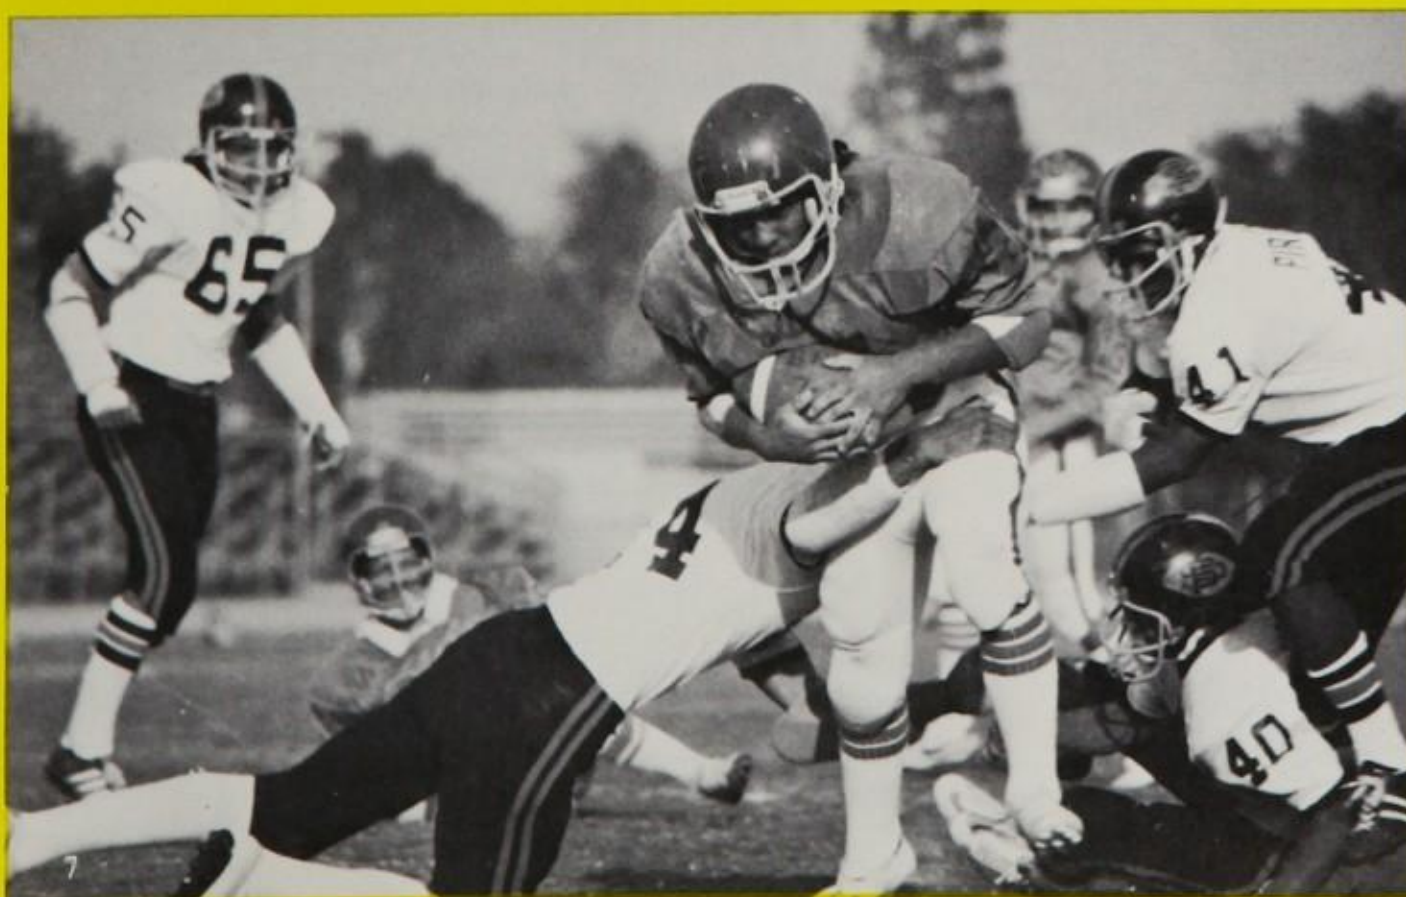

COMING TOGETHER IN COMPETITION

As we compete in all sports, great lessons are learned. Above all is the value of teamwork. This value is the reason we must come together in competition.

1. Jon Moore is the recipient of an embrace from Bill Jones after a great play.
2. Bill Jones ecstatically rushes to congratulate teammates.
3. Marvin Brown waits dejectly for his chance to get into the game.
4. Stephanie Hollander glides through the pool on her way to an easy victory.
5. Alexis Scher demonstrates the joy of victory after a win.
6. A Brave tandem cover the ball in a great effort against San Pedro.
7. Rick Nanas struggles past the line attempting to break away for the touchdown.

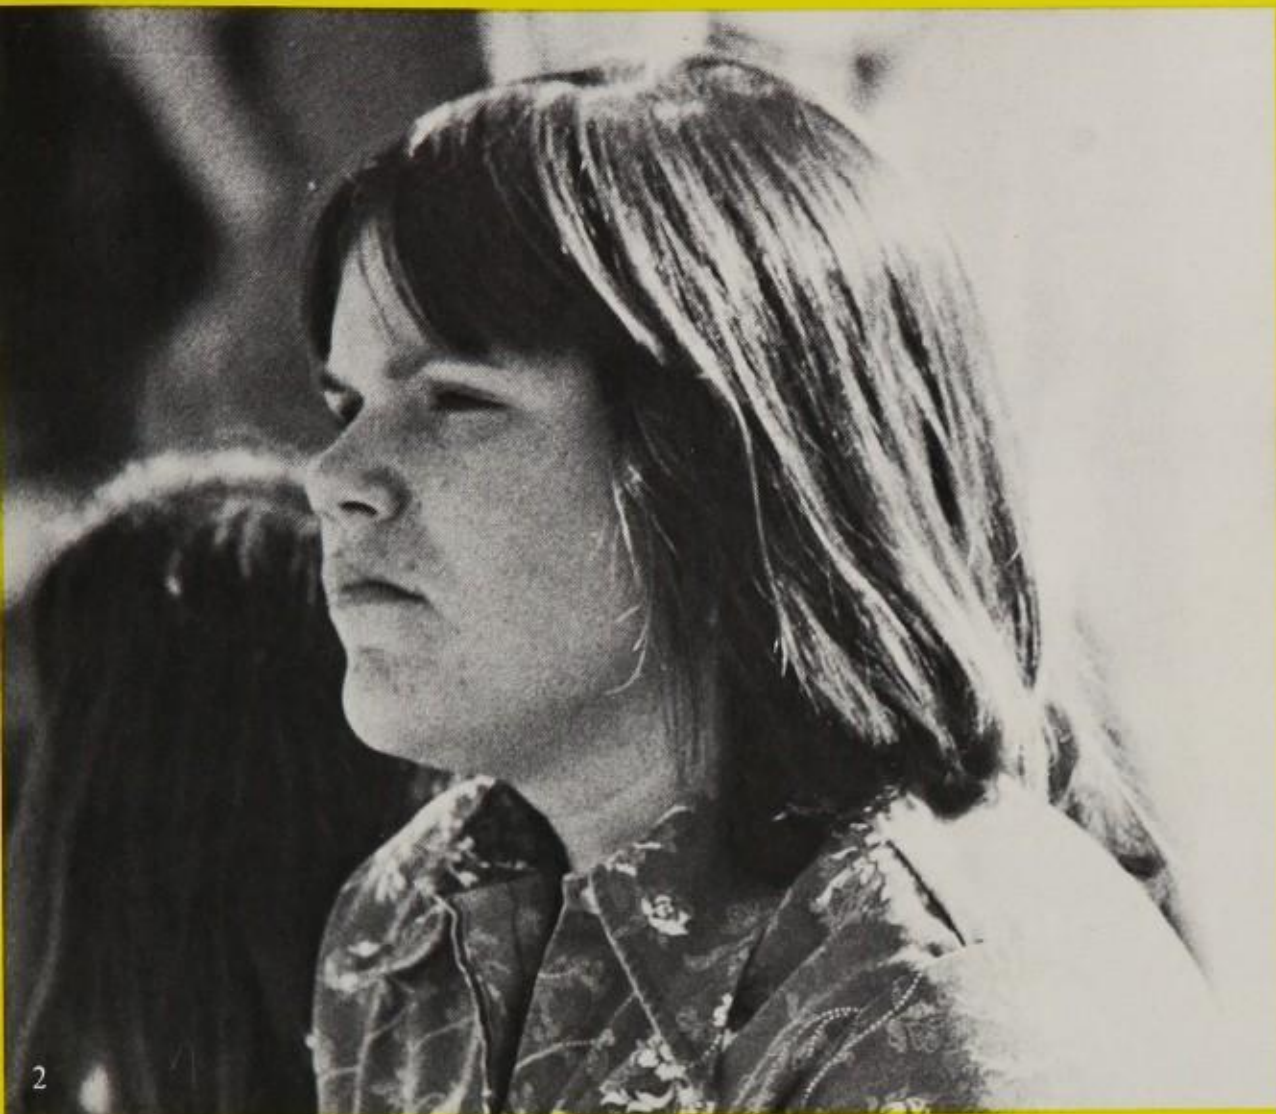

COMING TOGETHER AS EQUALS

More and more, ERA and Title IX are becoming evident at Birmingham. Girls can now do just about anything short of playing football. The importance of girls at Birmingham has long been neglected, but they are now beginning to be recognized. We salute them, as all students, boys and girls, come together as equals.

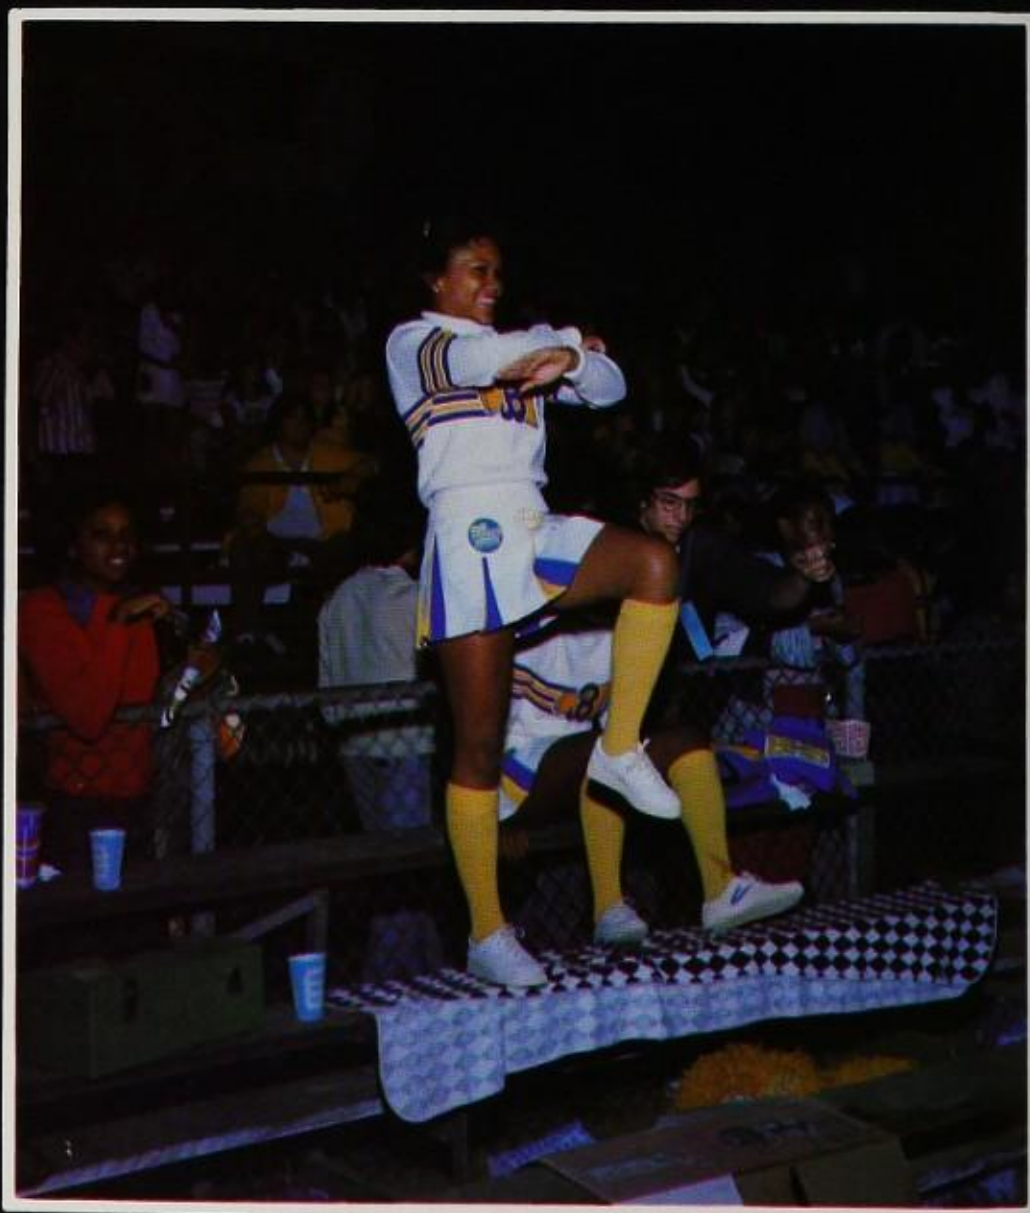

1. Brave drill teamers have some fun while generating enthusiasm. Clockwise from top left they are Shari Fraiberg, Nancy Radant, Sue Skutt, and Katie Jack.
2. Rhoda Clark and Raquel Grauba engage in some schoolwork as they prepare to battle men, as equals, for jobs.
3. Valerie Sutphen watches a Birmingham day go by.
4. Susan Cohan, Armina Shepard, and Edye Caine get ready to instill some spirit at a Friday night game.

1. Curt Strumlauf is first out for the second half as he breaks the run-through on the way to a "Victory for Varsity."
2. Our fantastic yell leaders leading the crowd in a verse of "We've got the spirit, yes we do!" They are Tracy Wright, Cari Tucker, Cari Murphy, Jennifer Foust, and Donnie Banks.
3. Tracy Wright demonstrates her spirit by cheering even while she's benched.
4. Members of the phenomenal drill team pause between numbers. Left to right: Jody Abrams, Michelle Paquet, Karen Esswein, Kelly Stuart, Kirsten Korot.
5. Kevin Briley and Chris Trött lead the great Brave's Marching Band as they're off to begin a half-time show.

COMING TOGETHER IN SPIRIT

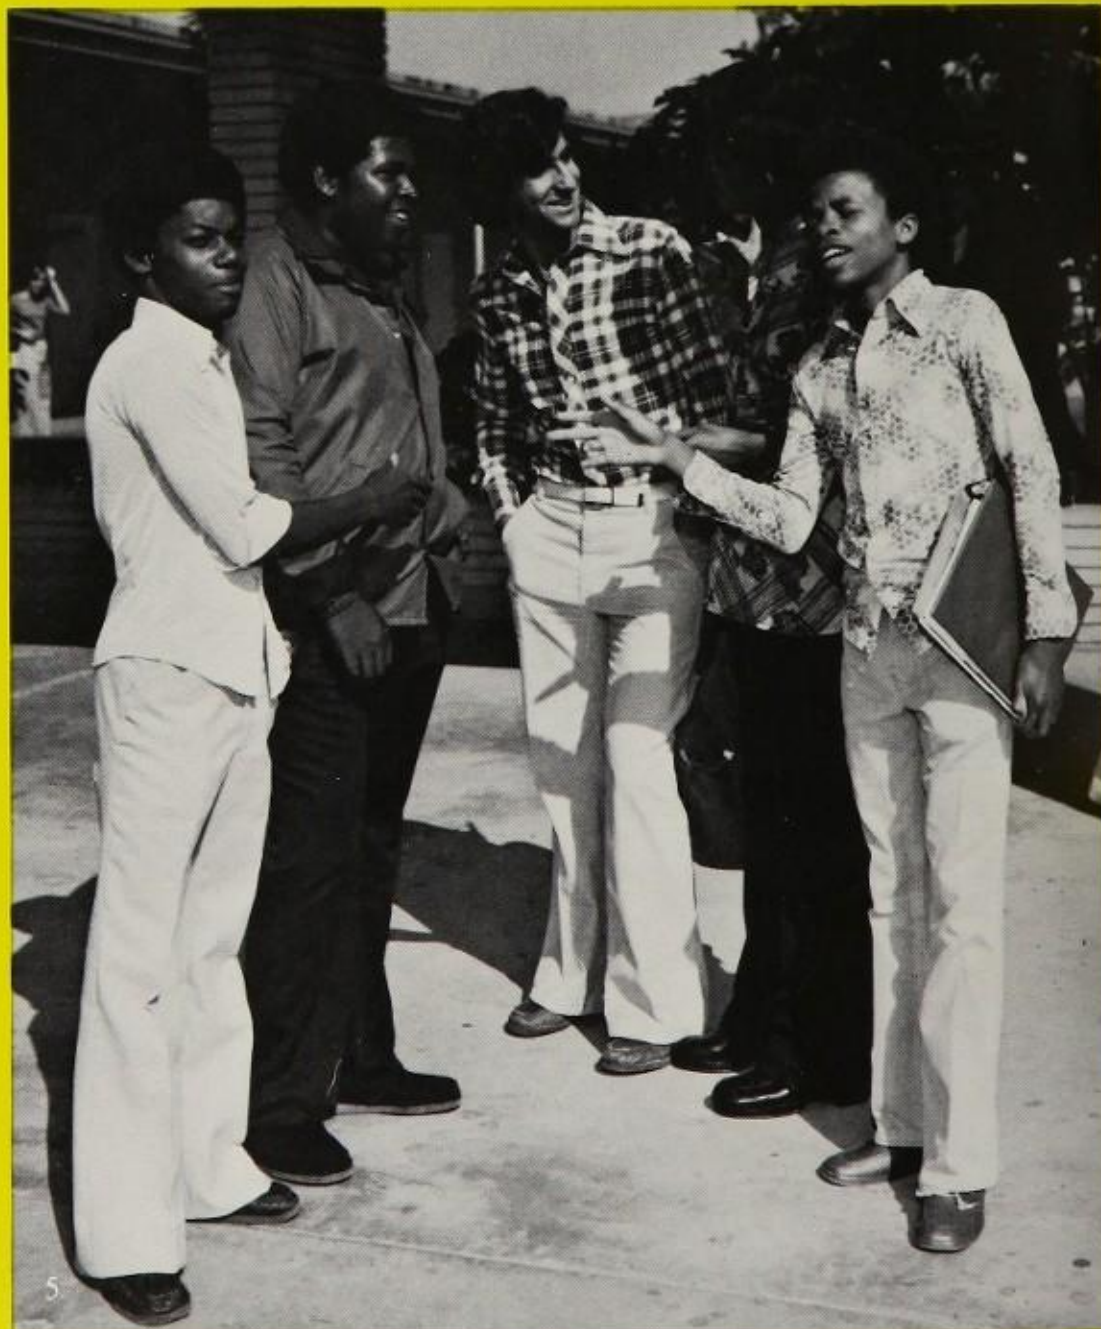

Spirit is one thing that was not in short supply this year as all the Brave students proved at all of our sports events. No chorus of "We've got the spirit" was ever answered louder, thus proving that "Our spirit is sky high."

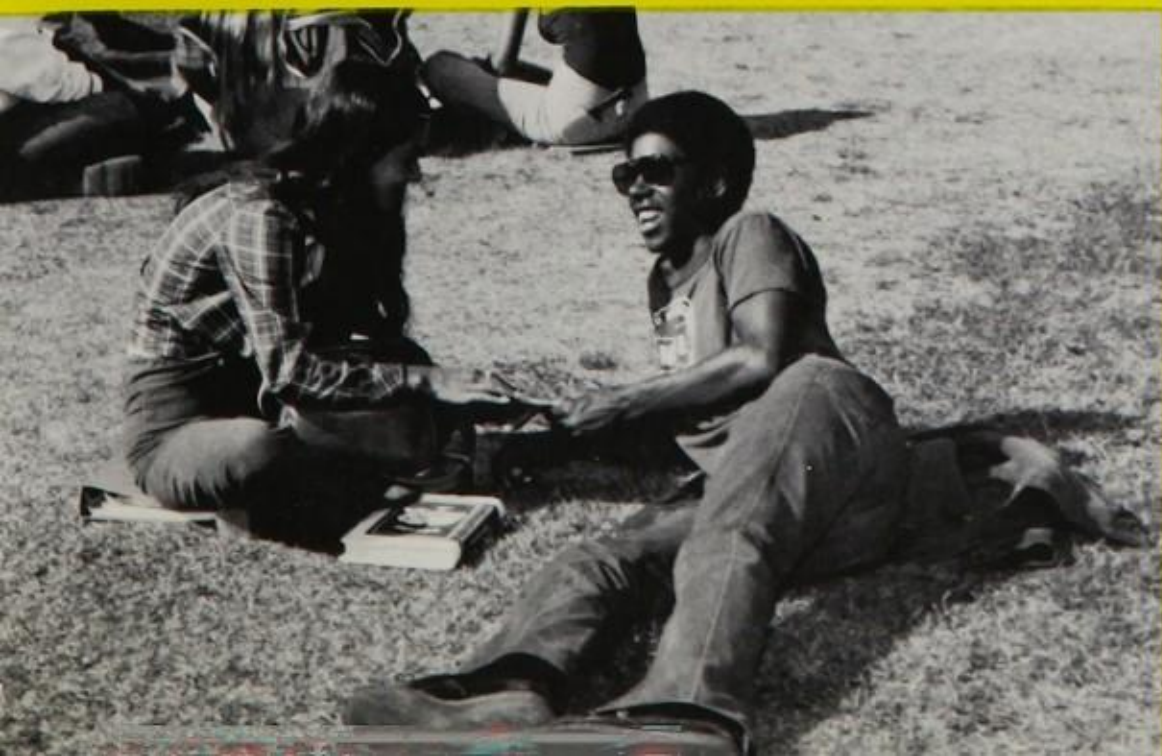

Our fantastic yell leaders and song leaders were answered on every cheer by the band, drill team, and pep club, and their spirit could be felt as well as heard for miles. We were together in our victories, and united in defeat. This certainly was a year in which we came together in spirit.

COMING TOGETHER TO LIVE

After all the furor over busing, Birmingham students proved that it can work. Together, everyone participated in school and fun. We cheered together, talked together, studied together, and shared the high school experience together. We are all at Birmingham, coming together to live.

1. Jeff May and Terry Sanders enjoy Senior Class's "New Games" in the quad.

2. Sheri Stanton expresses her joy as she watches the activities or "New Games" in the quad.

3. Peggy Edwards, Sharolyn Mosley, Sandra Landers and Adonis Armand catch our photographer in the act.

4. Patty Picard captures a few smiles from Pam Boute, Rochelle Bell, and Orlando Williams.

5. Alonzo Dobson and Ralph Ballard flank student body president Steve Brown on left and Michael Benzadrina and Lenar Staton look on from the right.

6. Georgia Nulepa, Lizzy Sepulveda, Pam Johnson, Kristy Ward, and Doris McKnight munch together as they share their experiences.

7. Karen Berman and Duane Bremond enjoy a brief encounter in the quad during activity period.

COMING TOGETHER

This is Birmingham High School. It's just about the only place you'll see girls dressed as men without pants, and the only place to catch the human tornado. It is here we come together for a brief encounter before we leave on our way to ... life.

1. The human tornado looks over the proceedings during nutrition.
2. Nadine Sherman and Melanie Stern just horsing around in their outfits during cfub initiations.
3. Mike Dekovner and Beth Hartstein have a mellow talk in the middle of the quad.
4. Diana Hariton, a man without pants for initiations, tells Senior Class president Leslie Cane about the hardships and oppression in yearbook staff.

DEDICATION

This year's staff has decided to dedicate the 1977-78 TOMAHAWK to you, the students of Birmingham High School. This was your year, and this is your book. We hope the memories it brings are only the fondest and those of one of the best years of your life. Remember that in the future you will speak of these times as "the good old days."

Music Makes The World Go Around

The sound of music was heard coming from the MPR on a Saturday night. Saturday? But Birmingham always has its dances on Friday! However this was the Homecoming Dance and as the lights were dimmed, Brenda Kramer, Ladies president, and Chris Simonian, Knights president were about to announce the 1977 Homecoming Court; "The Sophomore Princess is ... Michele Tucker. The Junior Princess is ... Fran Wiviott. The 1977 Homecoming Queen is ... Karen Goodman." This was the finale to over two weeks of preparation. Clubs and organizations worked every night to prepare their floats for the parade of floats on Friday. Thanks to Knights and Ladies homecoming was a musical success.

HOW FUNKY IS YOUR CHICKEN?

You may wonder who would use this unusual cheer asking, "How loose is your goose?" The answer is the 1977 yell-leaders, led by Jennifer Foust, head Varsity yell-leader and Teri Lewbel, head Bee yell-leader. Last summer at yell-leading camp at Loyola Marymount the yell-leaders learned many new and innovative cheers with which to surprize the crowd. At the football games they amazed everyone with their daring stunts, and even though there were no guys on the squad, the yell leaders managed to make many different and exciting pyramids.

The mascots aroused much spirit throughout the football season. They are the Braves who roam stands and attempt to get the whole crowd involved in cheers like "How Funky is Your Chicken?" If you wonder who they are, they are Diane Bruns, Marion Koltai, Ginger Malcom, Cindi Kramer.

POM-POMS, POTATOE AND CREAMCHEESE?

These are just a few of the nicknames of the fabulous 1977 songleading squad. At camp at California State University, Long Beach last summer, the squad took home every trophy the camp offered, not bad, eh?

Besides cheering for Birmingham's football, basketball, baseball, cross-country, track, and swim teams, they also cheered at special basketball games featuring the DJ's of K100 radio station, the cast of "The Chicken Chronicles," the Los Angeles Dodgers, and the cast of "Happy Days." They also serve as hostesses at all school sponsored functions.

Head Varsity Songleader is Sherry Vess, and head Bee is Arie Yuster. So, you can thank Tree, Shrub, and the rest of the girls for one of the best squads ever.

DANCING IN A WINTER WONDERLAND

Although snow wasn't falling on December 16, 1977, the Vice-Versa Snowball Dance still went on as planned by the Y-Council. Couples danced to the great music and impatiently waited until the three Most Desirable Males were announced. 12th grade Most Desirable Male, Louie Skoby, and 11th grade Most Desirable Male, Robert Shapiro, accepted their trophies with a kiss of congratulations. Too bad 10th grade Most Desirable Male, Danny Avan, didn't show up for the festivities. Maybe he was snowed in . . .

1. 11th grade Most Desirable Male, Robert Shapiro, with 11th grade Homecoming princess, Fran Wiviott.
2. 1st runner-up Sweetest Sweethearts, Jil Tucker and Steve Rottman.
3. Dancers swaying to the music at the Vice-Versa Dance.
4. 2nd runner-up Sweetest Sweethearts, Andrea Gesas and Alan Hayes.

CUPID STRIKES AGAIN!!

Cupid's bow was busy at the 1977-78 Valentine's Dance on the night of February 17 in the Multi-Purpose Room. The dance was arranged by Jan Porter, Commissioner of Social Activities, sponsored by the Boy's and Girl's Leagues, and had its own disco Disc Jockey, Russ Mahler, an ex-Birmingham student. Sweetest Sweethearts, Jodi Abrams and Ruben Kusnier, along with 1st runners-up, Jil Tucker and Steve Rottman, and 2nd runners-up, Andrea Gesas and Alan Hayes, were given trophies and congratulated by all. Isn't Love the greatest feeling?

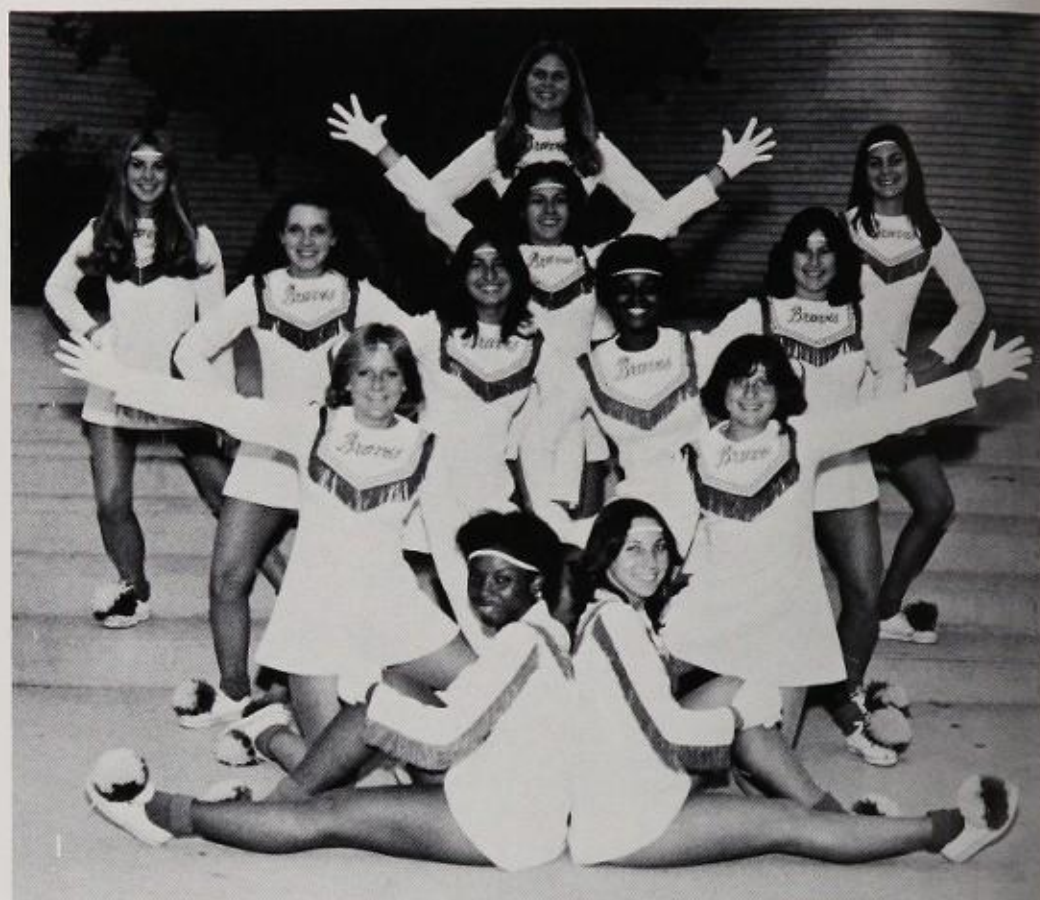

THEY'RE SHARP . . . SHARP . . . SHARP!

Who? The 1977-78 Drill Team of course! Led by Debbie Kimble and Jody Block, they pleased their audiences right to the very end. Throughout the whole season the great formations for the shows were given standing ovations—and did they deserve it! Not only did they march every Friday night, but they also participated in two competitions and a parade at Magic Mountain for Halloween.

Welcoming the visiting drill teams were greeters: Cathy Rose, Karen Esswein, Andrea Gesas, and Kim Pauli. Flag Girls this year were led by Stephanie Martin and Jeanett Wainwright.

THERE GOES THE BALLGAME!

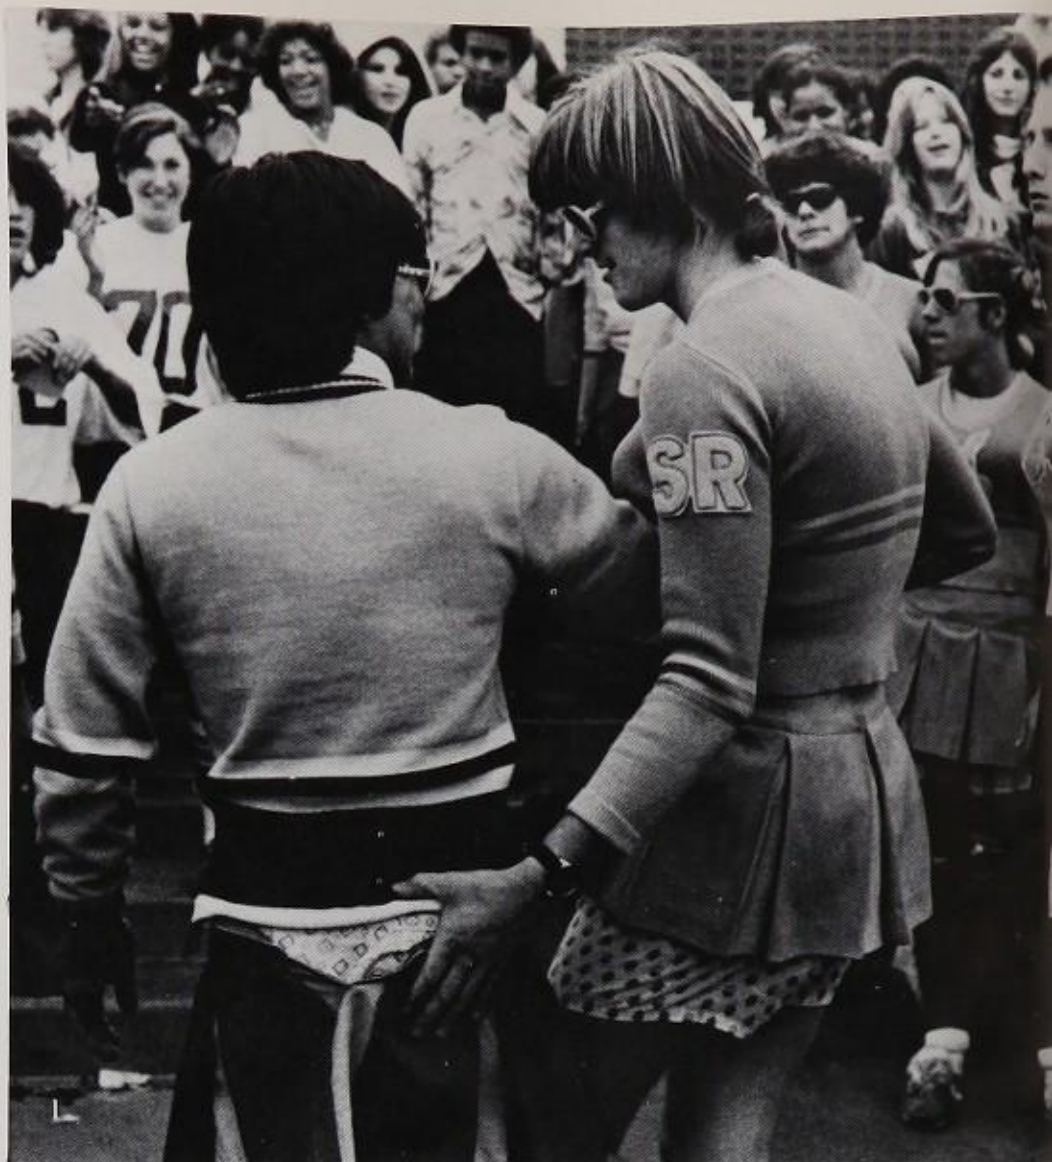

No, we're not talking about the Varsity football team! This is a song that was used throughout the year and became the theme song of Mr. Wurfl, band director of the 1977-78 Marching Band. Led by drum majors, Kevin Briley and Chris Trott, they not only played this great song for Homecoming, but accompanied the Drill Team with such songs as "Nothing" from a Chorus Line, "Jesus Christ Superstar," and "Rocky".

Twelve hours after Homecoming they found themselves at our home stadium competing against other Los Angeles City Schools in the preliminaries to see which schools would eventually go to the Sports Arena. They also competed at Northridge and marched with the Drill Team at Magic Mountain for Halloween.

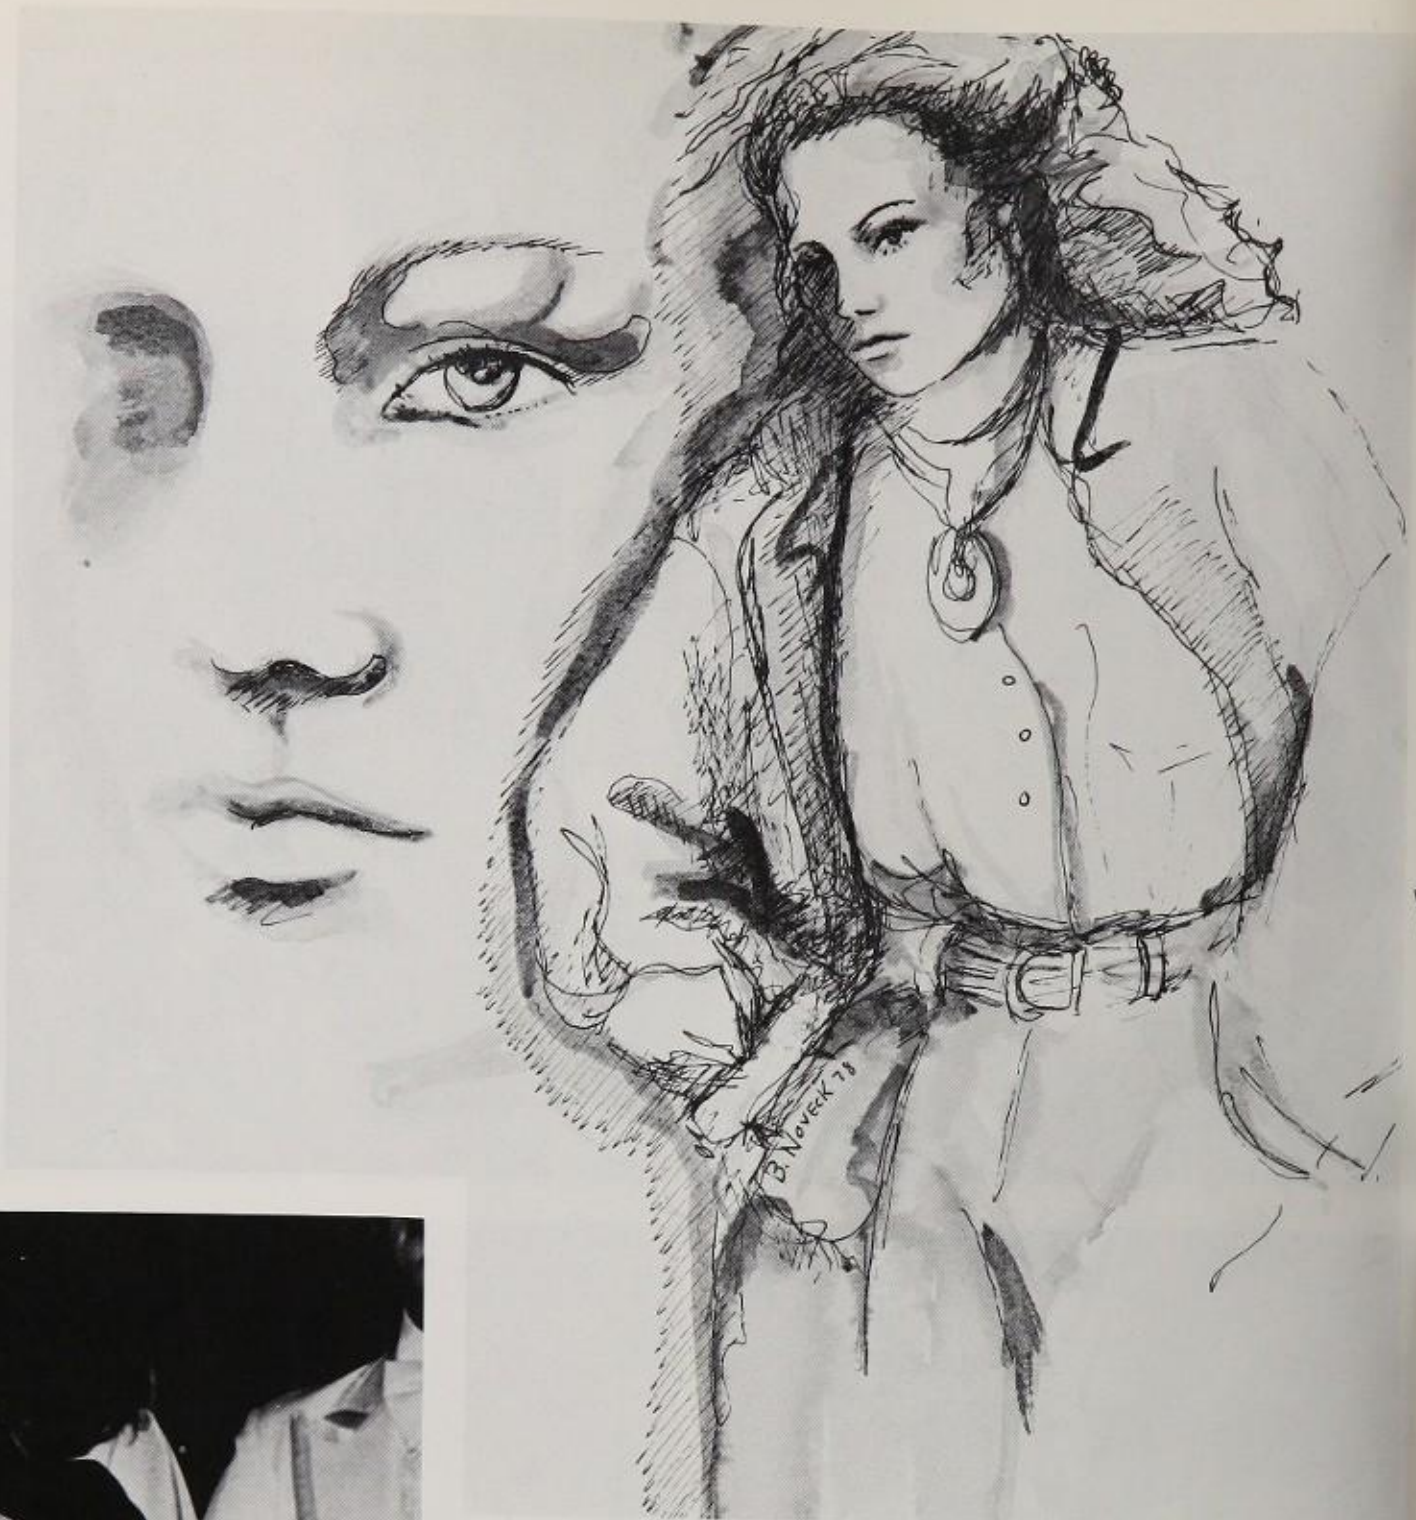

JUNIORS WERE JOKING!

Singing "We Are the Champions," the Seniors once again triumphed over the Juniors in the 1977-78 Powder Puff game with a score of 26-14. Held on Thursday, December 15, in our home stadium, the Seniors were led to victory by head coach Bob Miller and Senior team captains Rhonda Durham, Jennifer Foust and Lisa Simmons. All Senior players played very well with Rhonda Durham making three touchdowns and Jennifer Foust making one. The Junior team, led by head coach Stuart Berman and Junior captains Giselle Ford and Gralyn Li-brando, also played a very good game. Both Junior and Senior Cheerleaders were as crazy as ever and made sure the crowd shared their "high" spirits! Seniors—you ARE the Champions!!

2. Cynthia Williams and Gail Hoelker debate the game's strategy.
3. The voluptuous Senior Class Cheerleaders show their "high" spirits. John Horn, Mark Cohen, Alan Beck, Louie Skoby, David Burk, Nick Dres, Fred Jacobson, Jeff Hargleroad, Bob Katz and Dave McKinney.

2. A colored visor and stripes ... enough to make a zebra jealous!
3. A girl in a tux? What next?
4. Down jackets and vests along with silver and gold jackets are an ordinary accessory.
5. The name in the left-hand corner of glasses is another fashion that's unique. Do you think Elton John has a pair?
6. Tucked-in jeans and boots are very popular.
7. Rolled up, straight leg jeans and platform shoes are also very popular.
8. Purses, purses, purses. What girl doesn't have one? Or two? Or three?

DO IT AS YOU LIKE IT!

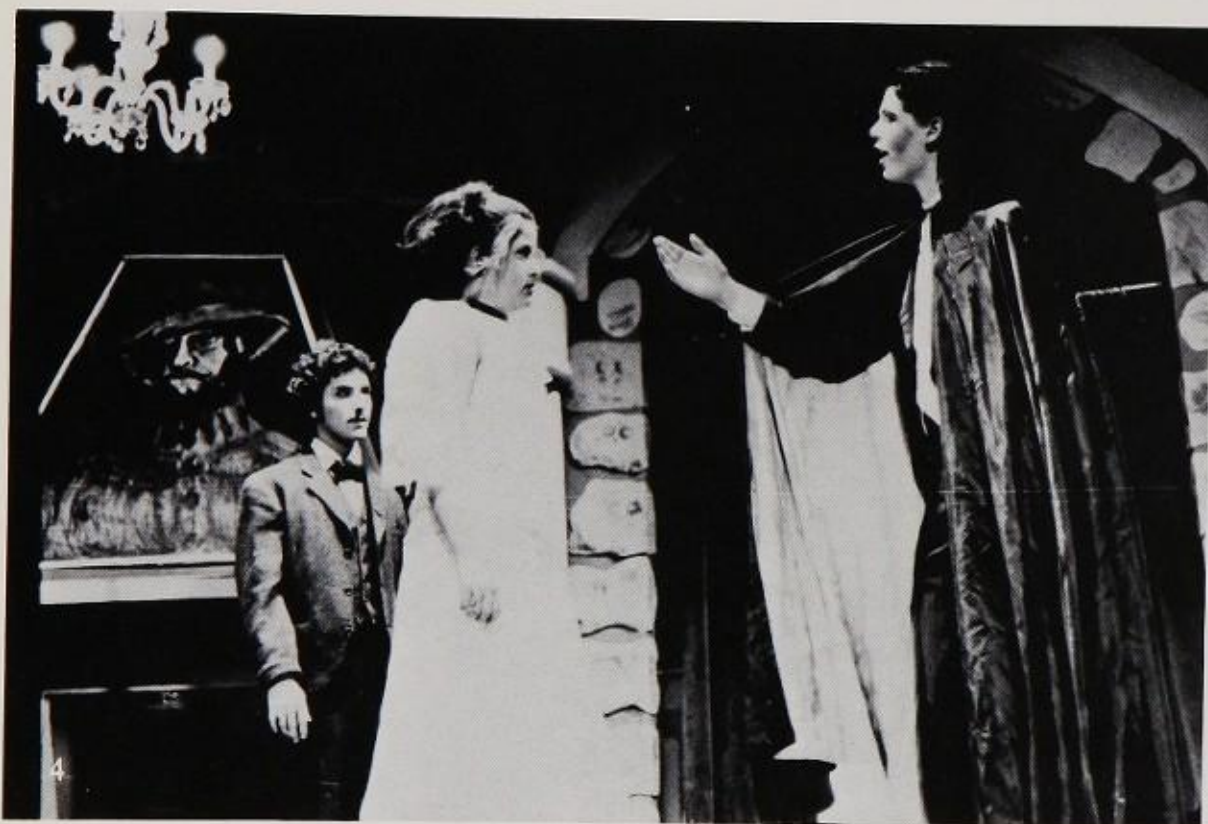

When you look around the campus, there are a variety of tastes. Fashion includes everything from permed hair to charm holders. In the student parking lot (called the "Snakepit"), the most popular car is the Camaro. "Saturday Night Fever" is the most talked about movie and the discos are the hottest spots in town. Favorite groups include: Boston, Foreigner, Queen and Styx. The Beatles are back with the Broadway hit, "Beatlemania." Today everyone is their own person and they pick and choose for themselves. Who would want it any other way?

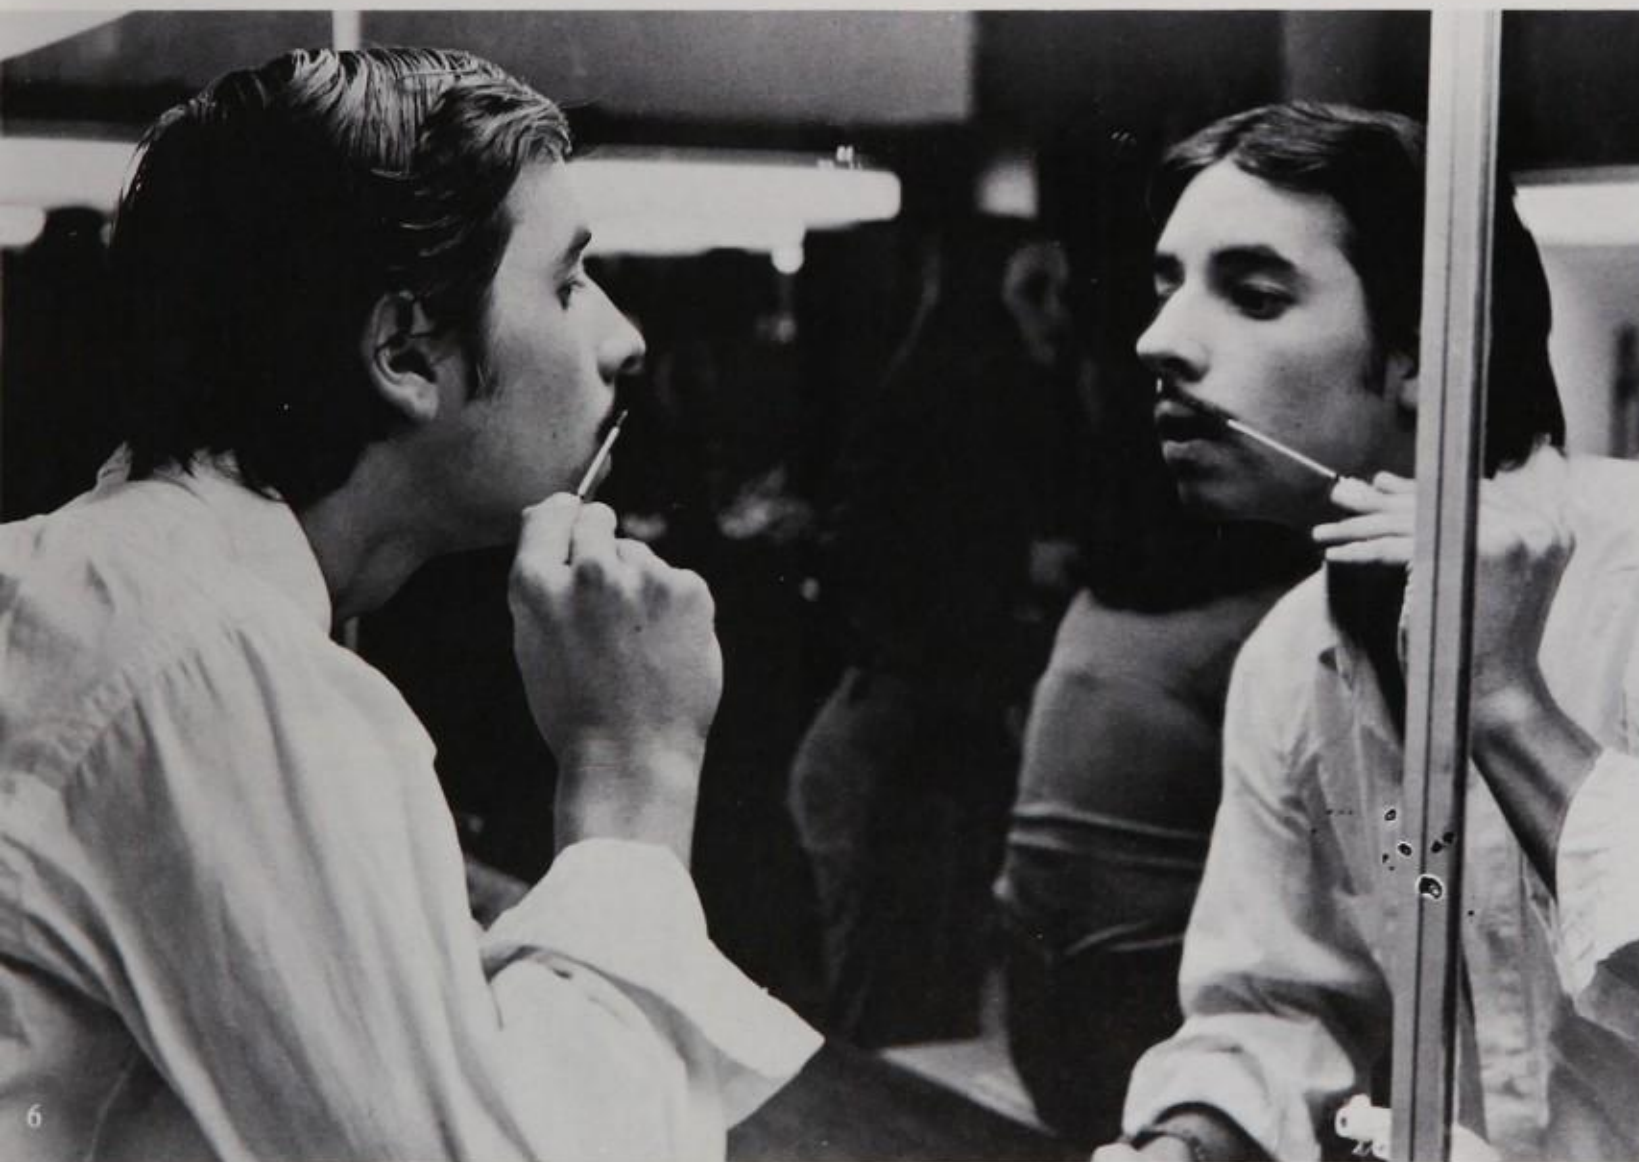

I WANT TO SUCK YOUR BLOOD

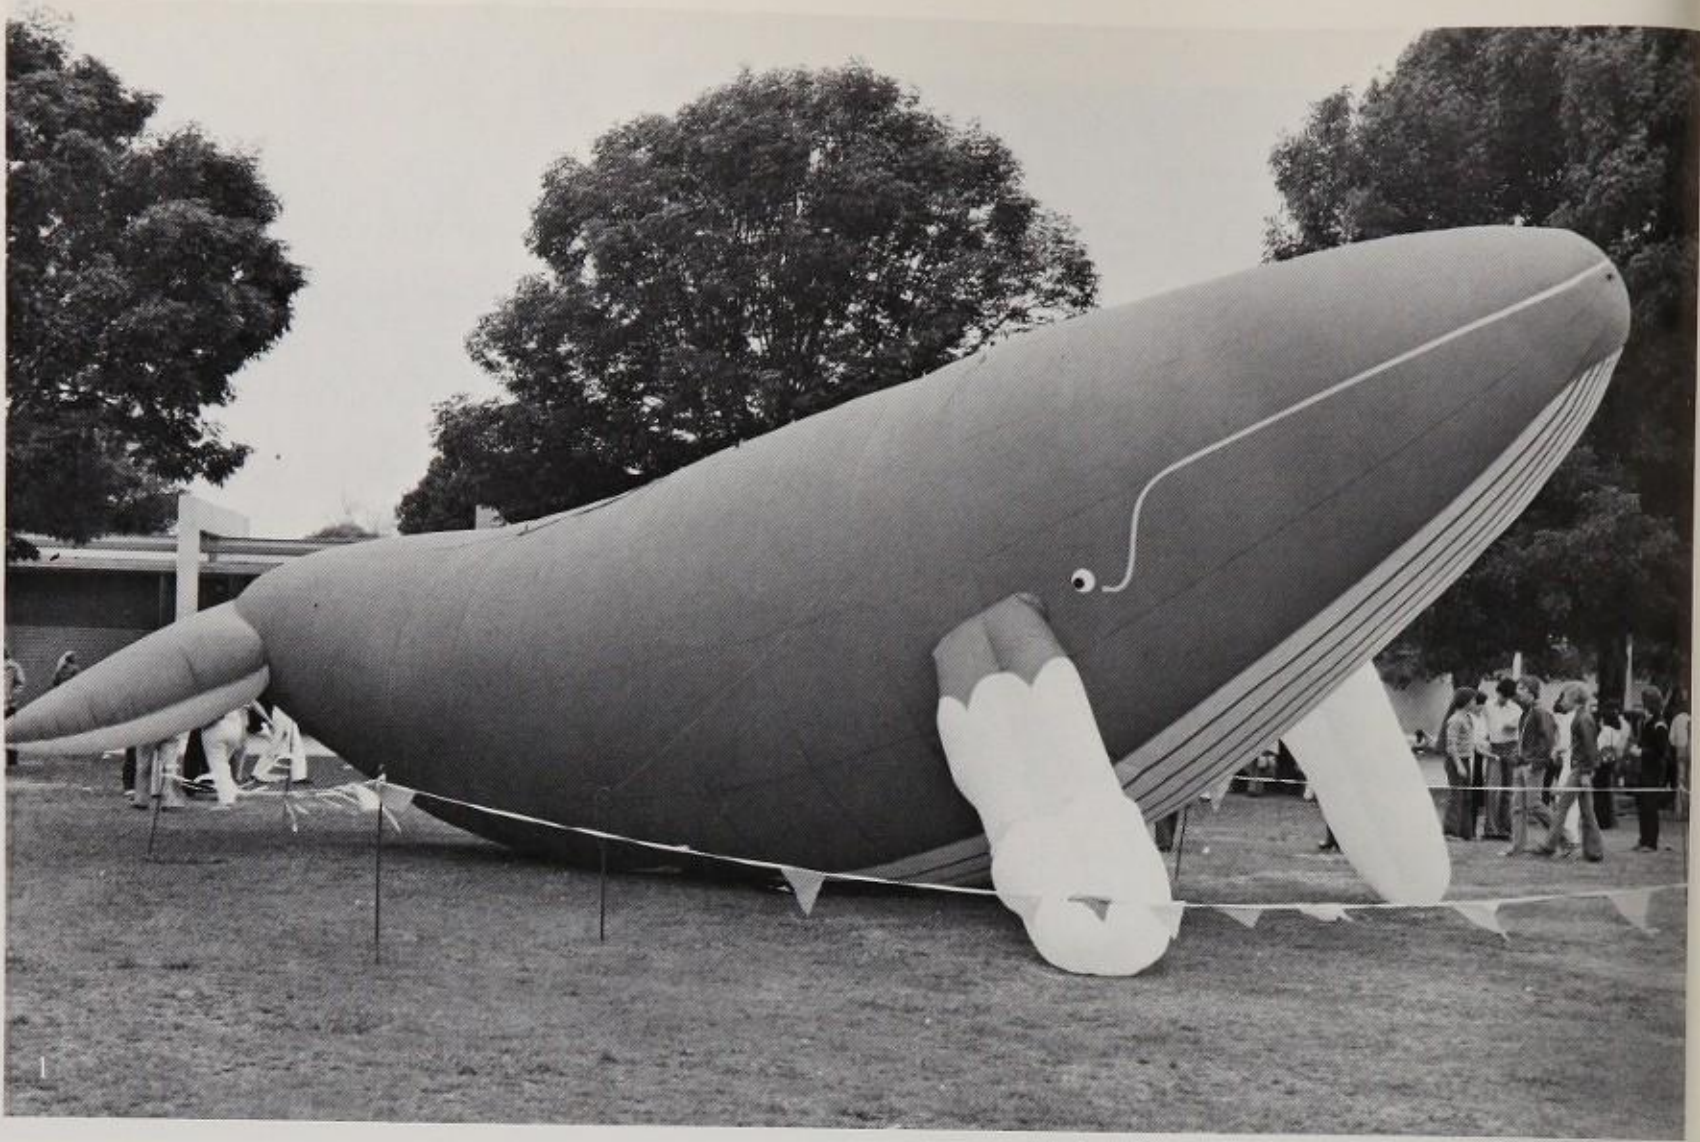

O.K., but only if you give it as a donation to the Red Cross!

Count Dracula, the Drama Department's first production of the year was great! Players Richard Weinburg, Barbara Weg, David Lavin, Shari Smith, Karen Kohler, Rhonda Veiner, and Sandor Jay Sonnen as Count Dracula, all did extremely well but the two outstanding performances were made by Marty Burton as Hennessey the butler and Lori Fortune as Renfield the fly-eating inmate. Despite certain distinct flaws in the production, coupled with occasional audience restlessness, the play proved to be amusing and entertaining. Pajama Game, shown in the spring, was equally good.

1. Sandor Jay Sonnen as Count Dracula.
2. Getting ready for opening night.
3. Julie Stern-Assistant Director.
4. "Hmmm...you look like a fine specimen." Karen Kohler and Sandor Jay Sonnen.

4. Adam Chuck hands over the merchandise, a box of animal crackers.
5. Lynne from the Exotic Animal Institute shows everyone who's who.
6. As innocent bystanders look on, a rhodent makes a daring getaway from a snake on his trainers back.
7. Another conservationist looks on at the proceedings.
8. A foxy fox checks out his audience.
9. Rocky Racoon patiently waits for the show to end.

LIVING ON THE WILD SIDE

One of the biggest attractions to hit Birmingham this year was the second Annual Wildlife Faire presented by Birmingham's own Wildlife Club. Approximately twenty wildlife organizations attended. "Flo," the fifty foot whale balloon, was the biggest hit of the faire. Activists from Actors and Others for Animals, the Fund for Animals and the other groups presented information for students to take, as well as purchasable items of which a percentage of the profits went to specific animal aiding actions. The Wildlife Club sold animal crackers and Birmingham students were eager to buy. A Channel Five news camera was here to get words from organizers of the faire, Rob Eshman and Christine Dzilvelis. The organizations were very pleased with the faire and so was Birmingham.

LOOKS LIKE WE MADE IT!

Yes, the Class of 1978 made it though the years ... 820 graduating Seniors held their Prom on May 5 in the California Ball Room of the Beautiful Bonaventure Hotel. Leslie Cane and her Prom Committee planned the successful event, and arranged for the live band, Organized Crime. During the evening of dancing, Jennifer Foust, announced the King and Queen of the Prom. It was a glorious night and will be remembered for years to come. Thank you, Class of 1978, for a beautiful year and for being the best graduating class ever!

BRAVES RECEIVE NEW CHIEF

Fellow Braves,

As a newly assigned principal, the reknowned Birmingham spirit and pride impressed me from the outset.

The accomplishments of Brave alumni are legion and it is inevitable that the current graduating seniors will continue this tradition that has prevailed for nearly 25 years.

We wish our 1978 grads the best and hope they leave with fond memories of their years at Birmingham.

OUR TERRIFIC TRIBAL COUNCIL

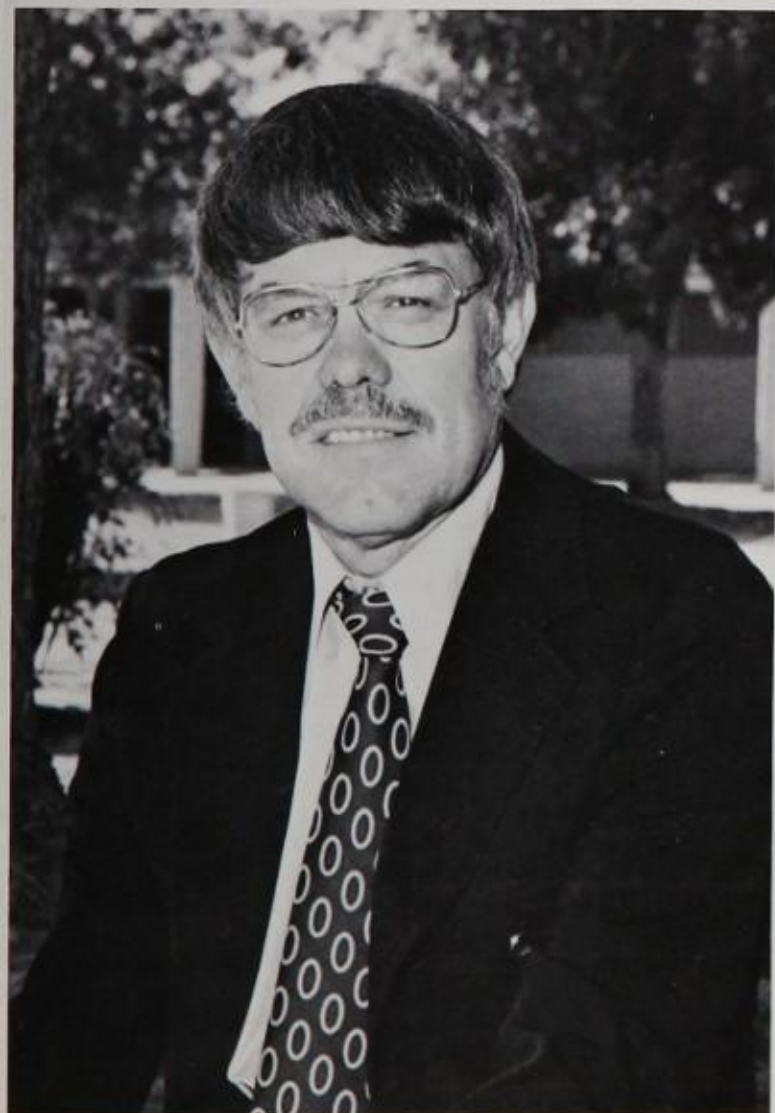

It is hardly imaginable what a day would be like without these hard-working, dedicated individuals. Their jobs are not nearly done with the bell at 3:10; administrators do not even attempt to leave school until 4:00, when they are usually stalled with more work which cannot wait until the following day. One must realize that Birmingham High School wouldn't be the same without them.

Mr. Marvin Gottlieb, Head Counselor

Mrs. Florence Lawyer, Assistant Principal

Mr. Martin Pattee, Administrative Dean

Mr. Angelo Porco, Assistant Principal

THE TRIBAL SAGES

The counseling and guidance services at Birmingham High School include personal, educational, and career development for the students.

The counselors, college and scholarship advisor, career advisor, and work experience coordinator assist the student in exploring his abilities and interest and arriving at a realistic self-assessment and career goal.

The counselors are responsible for all phases of the students' adjustments. The students are assisted in solving problems arising out of absenteeism, tardiness, and truancy. They are also assisted in problems such as failure to meet graduation requirements, drug abuse, and other teenage problems.

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY BABY

Girls' Week in the Community was held November 7-11, 1977. The kick-off luncheon was held at Birmingham High and was hosted by the Girls' and Boys' Leagues with the assistance of Student Council officers and cheerleaders. Five hundred-fifty persons, consisting of girls, administrators, guest speakers, and schoolboard members, were there.

The opening session of Girls' Week was held in the Performing Arts building beginning with registration. Coffee and donuts were served. After registration, speeches were made by female community leaders, essay contest winners were introduced and poster contest winners were recognized. The session was hosted by members of Girls' League.

Sub-groups of Girls' Week in the Community were, Girls' Day in the Community, which was a day set aside for the girls to visit the occupation in which they were interested for the day, and two sets of seminars led by community leaders. Over one hundred girls participated in Girls' Day in the Community. The entire week was very enjoyable.

1. Seminar conference - Woman's Role in Police Work.
2. Seminar conference - Women in the Law.
3. Opening session on November 7, 1977.
4. Luncheon setting in Multi-purpose Room.

SENIOR CLASS CHEERLEADERS DON'T TAKE NO POOH-POOH

This spirited group of eight girls has proved to the entire school that Birmingham's class of 1978 won't tolerate anything but the best. Led by Winnie the Pooh and Lisa Simmons, the senior cheerleaders devote hell week during the summer and two afternoons a week to learning cheers for events such as soccer games, tennis matches, basketball games and cross-country meets. They represent the undaunted enthusiasm and optimism of the class of 1978.

JUST LIKE DR. PEPPER

Just like Dr. Pepper, Fall Senior Class Council is the most original in the whole wide world. When you combine inspirational president Leslie Cane and six officers full of incentive with the largest Fall Senior Council to ever materialize, and add to that the support of sponsor Mrs. Trimer, the result is inevitably innovative. New Games Day was an unprecedented event. Halloween Grams, balloon-selling, and Pooh senior t-shirts were all given a creative twist. Their original homecoming float "Ease on Down the Road" was the recipient of the Dad's Club Prize. The annual Powder-Puff football game and corresponding activities were also sponsored by the council.

1. Fall Senior Class Council President, Leslie Cane, up a tree again.

RELAX! HORIZONS CAN HANDLE IT!

VARSITY CLEATERS KEEP COMING

Birmingham's Varsity Football team polished off the 1977 season under third-year coach Bill Brown with a fulfilling, if not victorious, effort. Faced with exceptionally tough league opponents, the Braves' outstanding effort was not sufficient to earn top honors. But, the feeling of being part of such a devoted group was well worth the hours of unrelenting work needed to bring them through the season.

VARSITY TRACKSTERS ARE ON THE GO

The Varsity Track Team finished their triumphant season with a very impressive league record, many of the Braves advancing to the City finals. The team had a big help from members such as returning distance star Steven Pascal, whose incessant victories in the mile and two-mile made him one of the highest scorers in each meet and one of the best distance runners in the league. Another beneficial asset to the team was Mike Bradley in the pole vault, also a dependable scorer and high placer in the league. The sprints and relays were dominated by Morris Wynn, who was as constant a source of spirit as he was a source of points. Dave Coleman showed his talented flexibility by running the mile relay, 880, mile, and two-mile at one time or another during the season. WE'VE GOT SPIRIT

Amidst the cookies, cake, potato chips, and punch, voices rang out loud and clear. "We did it! We beat 'em!" A victorious Physiology class under the guidance of Mr. Morris gorged themselves at the expense of Mrs. Katzman's period two. The Community Advisory Council this year also promises to be a most productive asset. Spirited representatives, such as Bill Thein, were elected and it is certain that we at Birmingham will have a highly spirited, successful year with the help of the indefatigable P.T.A. and the outstanding C.A.C.

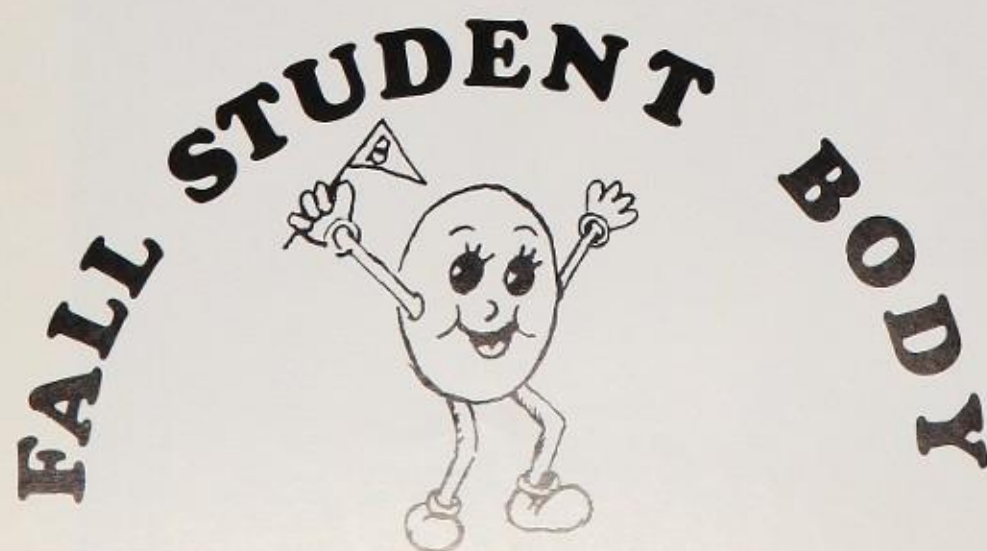

DADS DO IT BEST!

Dads are very useful people. They can make things, fix things, and when they join together to form a club they can even buy things. The daddies of Birmingham students are always busy buying things that are an extra, but they are great! That's what daddies are good for, extra things that are great. Dads Club will also provide the seniors with prom favors, another great extra. Dads are great!!

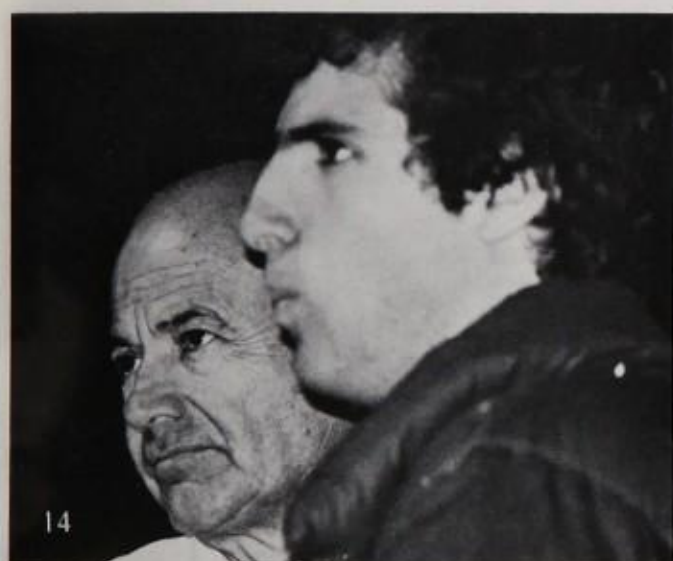

1. P.T.A.-Any new business?
2. C.A.C.-Up to old tricks.
3. Happy dads pose for a picture.
4. Dads caught in the act!

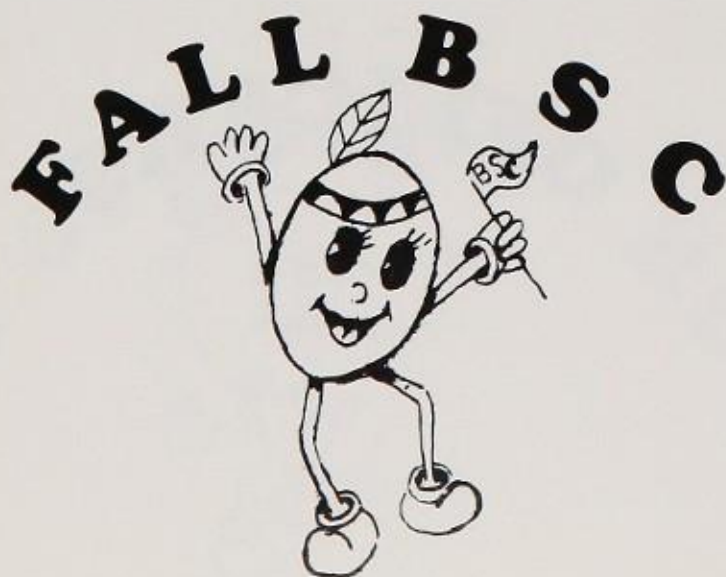

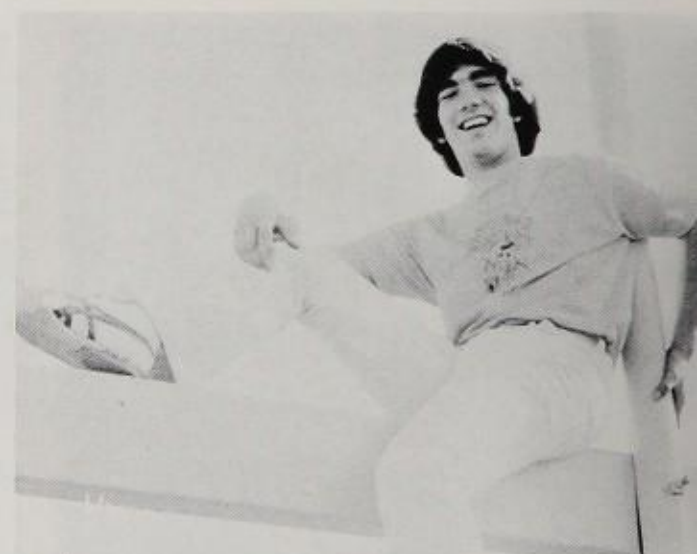

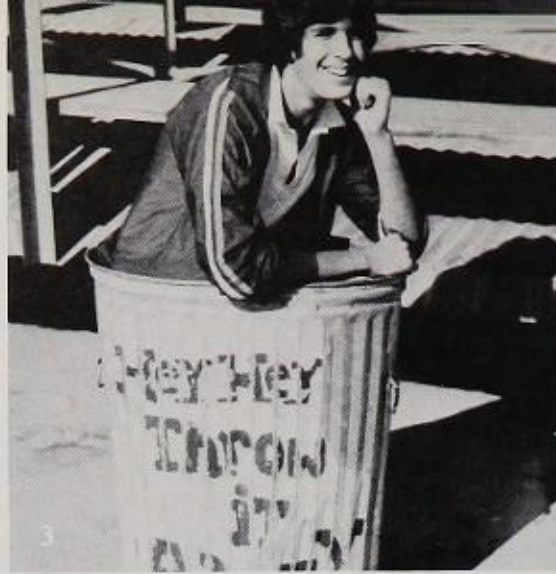

STUDENT BODY BUILDERS

Our student body officers are very busy this year doing many interesting things, like sending Taft Grams, having luncheons with students of Locke, Granada Hills, Monroe, San Fernando, and Taft high schools. They also had guest speakers. The student body officers' float for homecoming was "Heaven on the Seventh Floor."

OFFICERS "SPRING" INTO ACTION

They bounce into office the second half of the year,
Willing to work without any fear.

Their work is important, meaningful in fact
'Cause they work to keep the school intact
Under the direction of the "Great Honcho" himself
Mr. Ramirez controls all the little elfs.

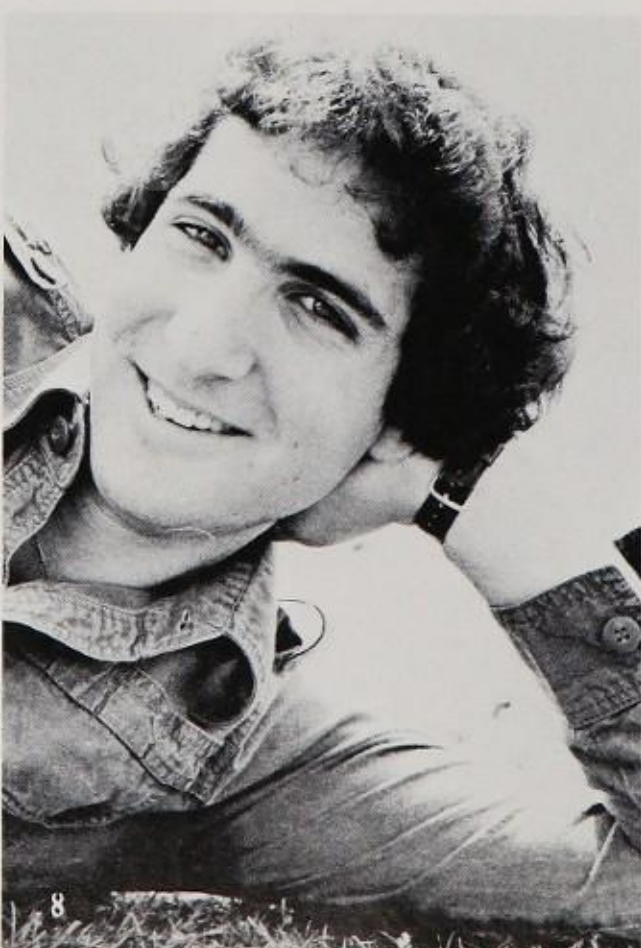

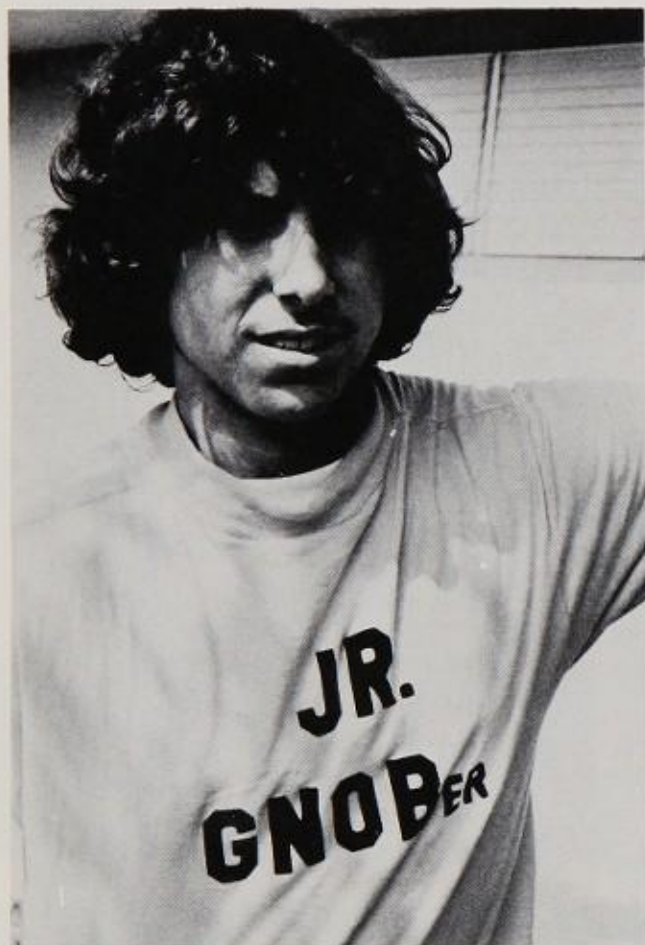

Without these little elfs our school would be a flop,
So let's give them a hand, and hope they won't stop!

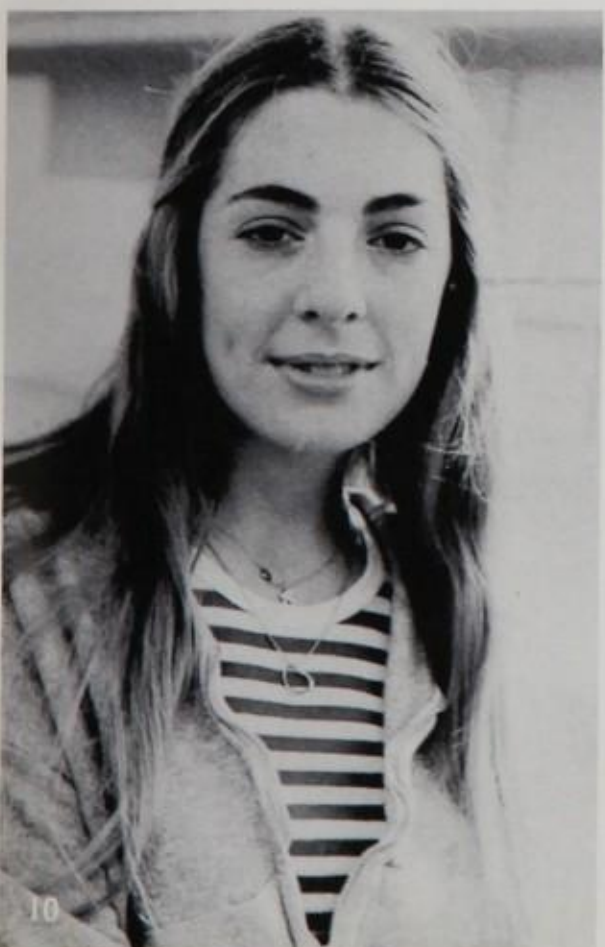

HELP, HELP, AND MORE HELP!

Do you need help? If you do, maybe, just maybe, the Birmingham Student Council Commissioners can help you out. They have much experience, at organization; and they are pros when it comes to their special field: such popular subjects as athletics, curriculum, social activities, elections and many more. The Student Council Commissioners never stop planning activities. Many of them have worked from early in the morning to late at night. Through the wonderful commissioners at Birmingham we have gained a successful year of fun.

WHAT'S A DFTSD?

If your quest for knowledge drives you to ask the question "What's a DFTSD?" you must venture through the kingdom of the Great Umbala's Knights and Ladies. These wise seniors could answer the eternal quest for a DFTSD or could confound you with another question: "What's a DFTHD?" Once thoroughly confused you must ask the great leaders, Brenda Kramer and Chris Simonian. They will proudly answer, "Don't forget the Spaghetti Dinner" and "Don't forget the Homecoming Dance." Such wise and spirited seniors should be acknowledged and we say, "DFTK&L." Now that you think you have it figured out, we'll tell you that it stands for "Don't forget the Knights and Ladies."

MESSIN' AROUND

Do you ever wonder what goes on at Birmingham besides the usual academic stuff? Well, Birmingham happens to have some fantastic clubs: Ski Club, Bowling, Archery, Wildlife, Knights and Ladies — literally something for everyone. There are rowdy clubs, for the times you feel like yelling and cheering at sports events, quiet clubs for the times you feel like sharing an interest with some fellow student, and helpful clubs for the times you feel like showing Birmingham you care. And Birmingham, we do care! If we feel like Swimming, playing, talking, or standing upside down in a rain puddle — you provide it all for us. Thank You.

THESPIANS

WE DO IT ALL FOR YOU

Do you feel like you're being drained from all the pressure of school these days? If so, then you should see "Dracula", the fall presentation by Thespians and play production. The entire drama department might feel drained after all their effort as we look forward to "Pajama Game" which will be the presentation in the spring. KBRV, Birmingham's own radio station, and Journalism keep us happy with music and newspapers. Debate Club keeps their tongues in action and add EXCITEMENT to having an opinion.

David Burk, Editor

"It is practically impossible for me to describe my experience with the yearbook and what it has taught me. I know of few people who know how intense feelings become when a person is working on a project like the yearbook. There is the intense feeling of satisfaction after you meet a deadline, the intense feeling of despair when you receive a phone call at two o'clock in the morning asking if you can come over and help paste seniors, and the intense feeling of achievement which comes when you finally receive the completed book and it is appreciated by your peers.

All of these feelings would never have been possible were it not for a few people, and I would like to show them my appreciation. First of all, to all staff members I say, "You're nice, you're pretty, and I'll kiss you when you're dead!" Secondly, thank to Freda, a girl with whom I have spent countless hours and for whom my love and respect is boundless. I'm not very easy to live with, especially when I'm under pressure, but Freda has put up with me for two years. Thirdly, to Mrs. Anderson, thank you for giving me this opportunity and the trust and independence to make it happen. Lastly, my deepest appreciation and love for all my friends, especially Jody for being there.

The year in room 44 was filled with weirdness, jokes galore, green M&M's, a lot of love, a little frustration, and most of all, some of the best times of my life."

Freda Berman, Editor-In-Chief

"Being in charge of the 1978 TOMA-HAWK has been an unforgettable experience. I have learned many things over the past year, the most important of which is the ability to tolerate and accept a variety of personalities and attitudes. In particular, the yearbook staff has taught me this. The people on staff were all different when they came together in September of 1977. They each had different goals for the school year. But, throughout the year, the staff, while keeping their individual objectives in mind, came together to work toward a common goal. This goal was to produce the best yearbook they could and the best in Birmingham's history. I have to congratulate them for working above and beyond the call of duty and attaining their common goal.

This is the year I learned to be a leader. This means I took responsibility for other people's actions as well as setting an example for the staff. I would like to thank a number of people for helping me to realize my potential as a leader. Mrs. Ann Anderson increased my awareness of my responsibility by giving me the opportunity to use my own judgement and make important decisions on a variety of issues. I thank David Burk, my right-hand man, for always being there when I needed him. My feelings of respect for David will never end. Jim and Pat of O'Connor Brothers also gave me needed help and support on many occasions, and I appreciate it greatly. Most of all I would like to thank my artists, photographers and section editors, for being great people. We all came together to work as one, and it has been an unforgettable experience."

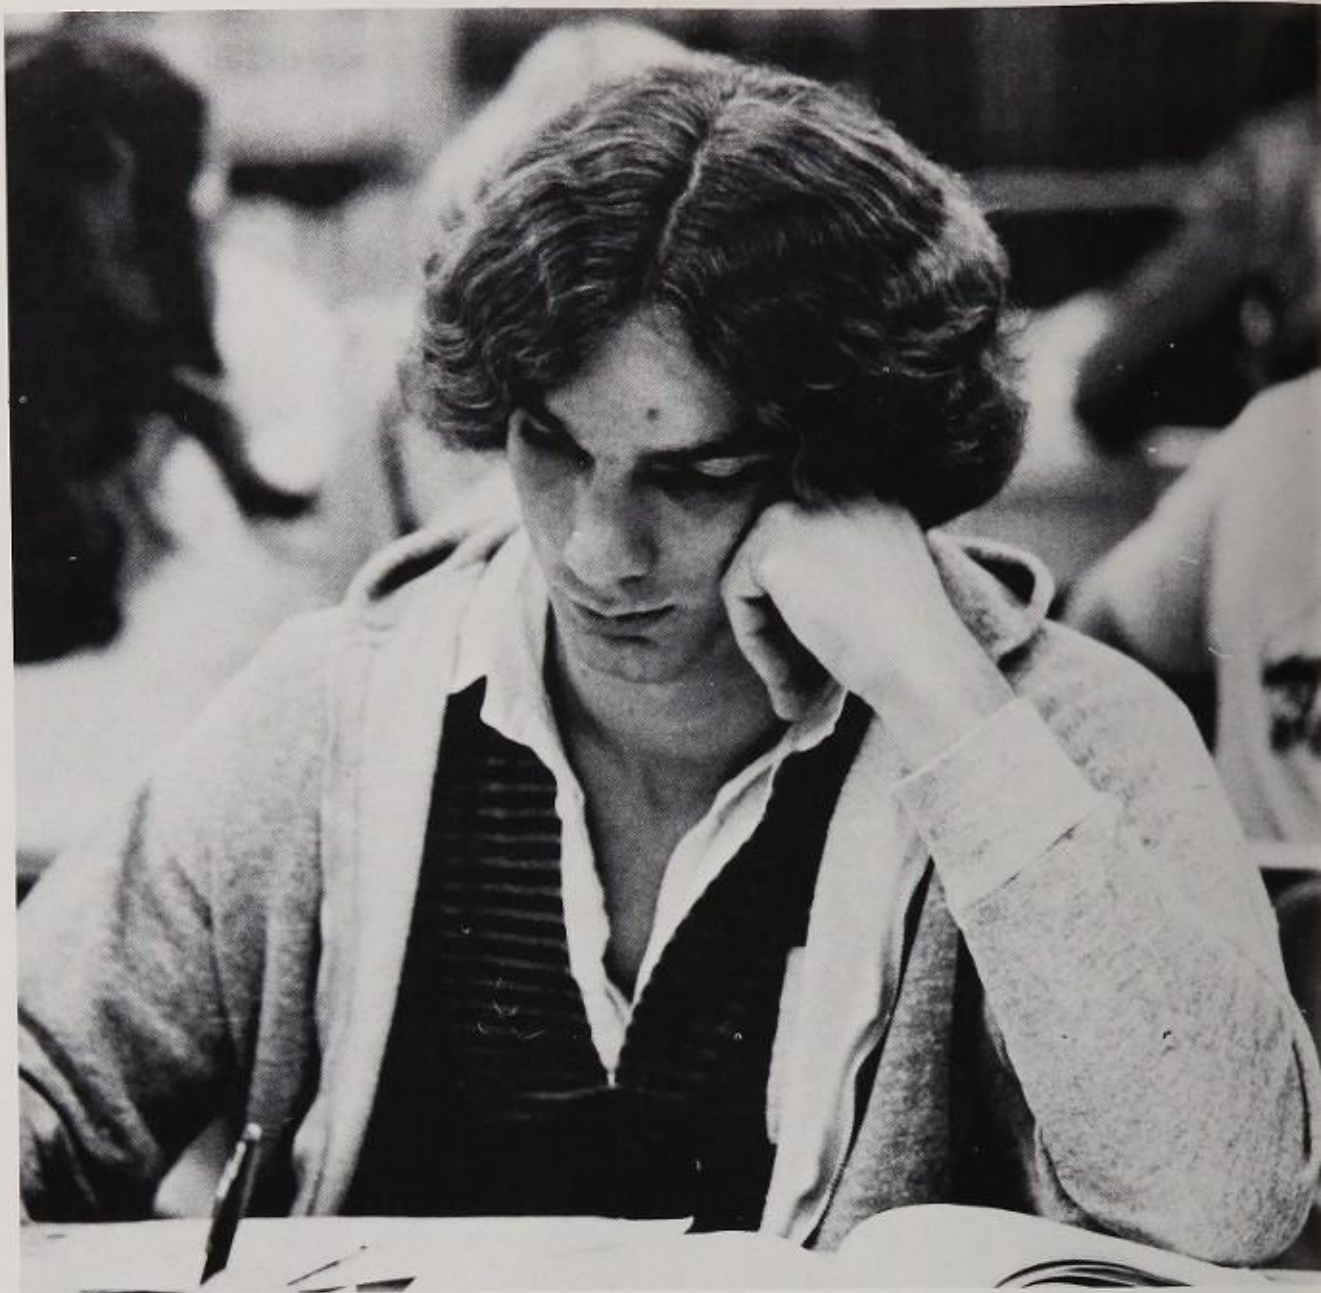

NOBODY DOES IT BETTER: YEARBOOK STAFF

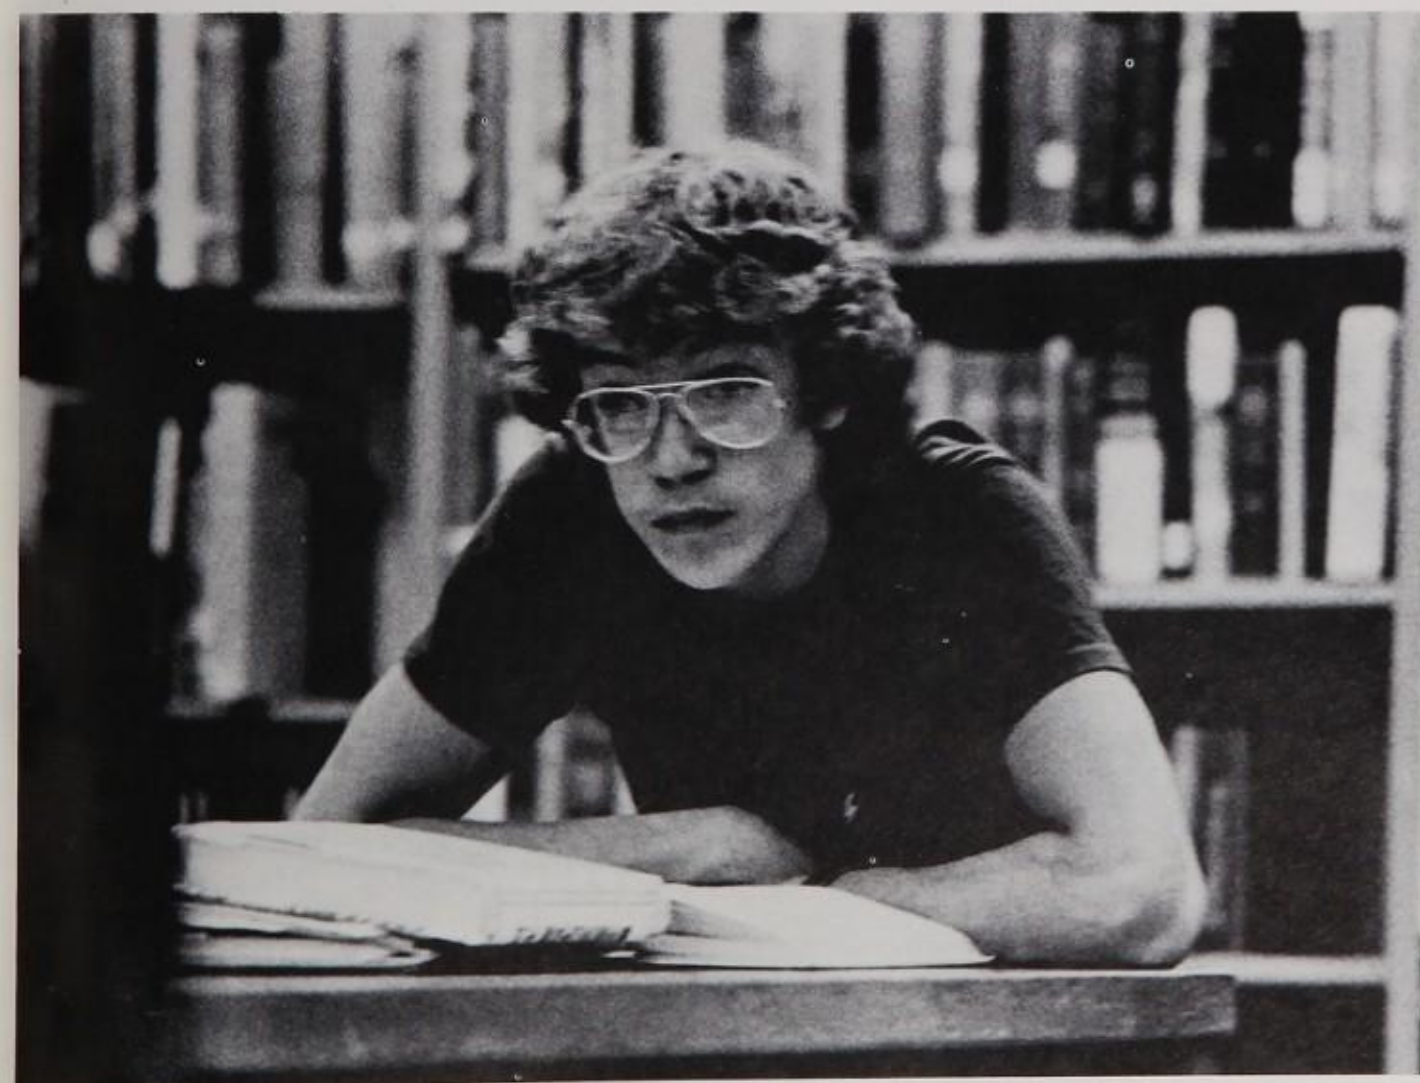

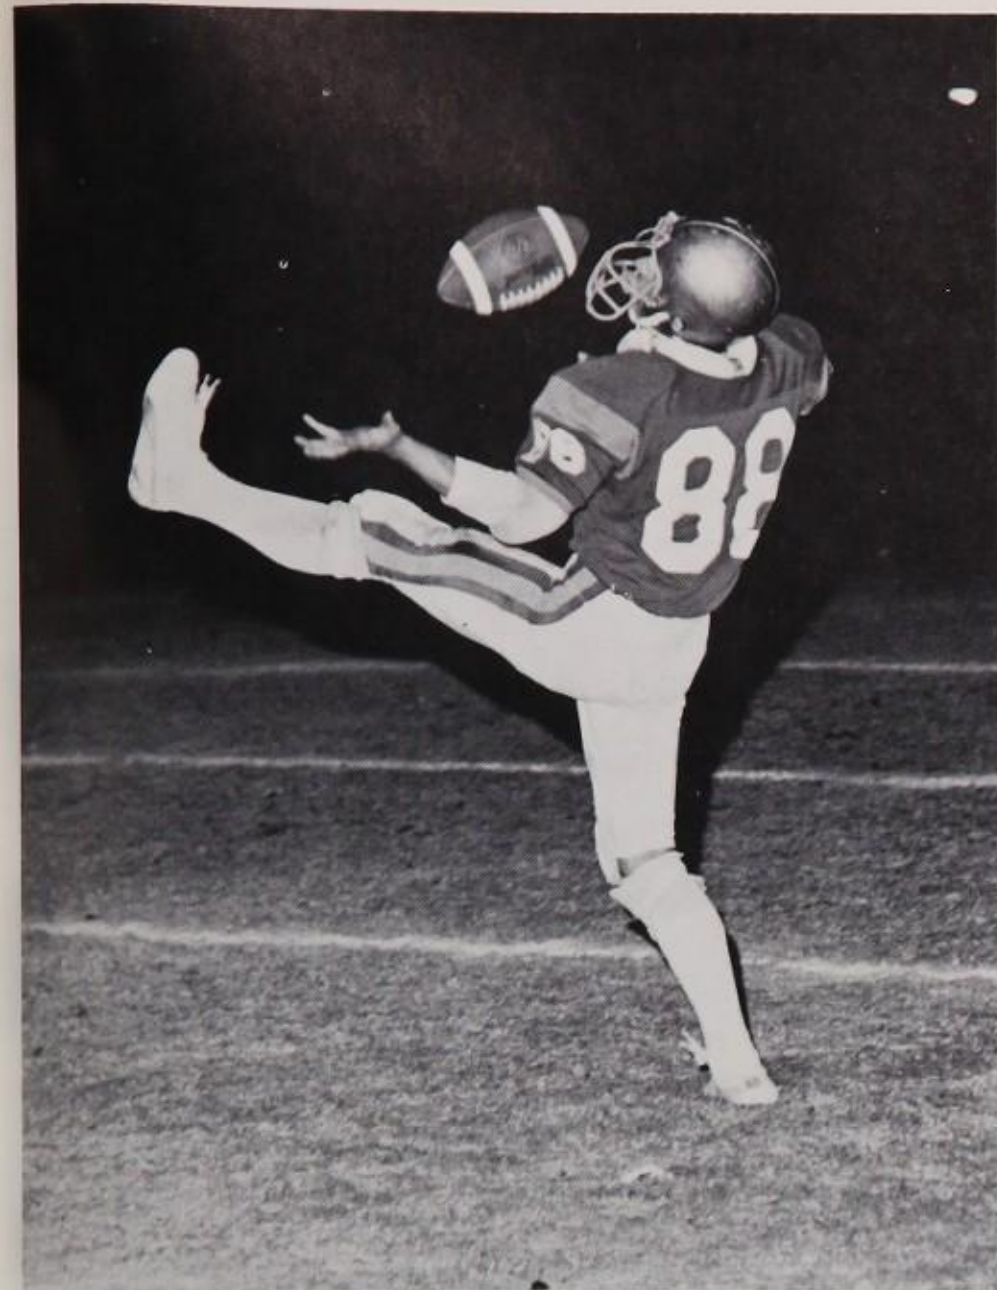

There are some people who we have yet to thank, and believe us, without them this book would have been an impossibility. First, a heartfelt thanks to our company representative, Hap Zavack, who gave us more time and consideration than any staff could ever ask for. Secondly, we appreciate all the last-minute rush jobs done for us by everyone at O'Connor Brothers, as well as the outstanding job on all our prints. Next, thanks to Mr. Steve Gilman and everyone at the Business Office for all their time and patience with sales and advertisements. Also, some great appreciation for Mrs. Bobbie Hitch for being our favorite sub and cheerfully putting up with the mess and confusion we created for all her art classes. Thanks to Ralph Grobman and Mr. Ramirez for covertly helping us out of some desperate situations. We can't forget Andy Shapiro and all the great pictures he gave us, and lastly, thanks to all our sponsors and patrons for helping us out in a time of monetary crises.

ON OUR OWN

We as a group are one; however, we are also unto ourselves one. Individualism is a great attribute to the ambiance of Birmingham, for we can act as we wish, express our own views, and are still able to be a part of the whole. Individualism is an integral part of high school, and it's important that at Birmingham, it is recognized.

ON OUR WAY

Our message to you, that we have come together as one at Birmingham High School, should now be evident to you. However, all good things must come to an end. We who are seniors must now go off to college and/or our respective trades, but we will always remember how we came together as one at Birmingham and then were off to the world as individuals, but not unchanged by our high school experience.
